

Caleb's Spirit

Caleb's Spirit

For Free

C

Christian-e-holdings.com

Caleb's Spirit

© Copyright 2021 by Joseph Rindal. All rights reserved.

---

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in retrieval system or transmitted in any way by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording or otherwise without the prior permission of the author except as provided by USA copyright law.

The opinions expressed by the author are not necessarily those of Christian-e-holdings.com.

This novel is a work of fiction. Names, descriptions, entities, and incidents included in the story are products of the author's imagination. Any resemblance to actual persons, events, and entities is entirely coincidental.

---

Published by Joseph Rindal

Neillsville, Wisconsin 54456 USA

Christian-e-holdings.com

Christian-e-holdings.com is committed to excellence in digital publishing. Joseph Rindal reflects the philosophy established in the Biblical verse found in John 21:25 (WEB), "There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't have room for the books that would be written."

Book Cover design by Joseph Rindal

Editing services by Joseph Rindal

Interior design by Joseph Rindal

---

Published in the United States of America

ISBN: 00-00-00000

Fiction / Religious

Fiction / Spiritual Warfare / General

TXu 2-263-908

This book is dedicated to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

A message to the Bride

PREFACE

This book was birthed the same night I finished my very first book, "Mind Beauty Soul." I was extremely excited to complete my first book and did not think I would write another book, because, well, I am not a writer in my mind. I had settled down for a night of sleep and felt a satisfaction in my spirit. God fulfilled me with my first writing experience. A few hours into my sleep, I was abruptly awakened and gripped in quaking fear. My dream was such a powerful experience that I kicked my legs hard and I was awoken. I stood up and felt an indescribable fear penetrate my soul. My bed sheets were soaked in perspiration as I lay back down on my bed and heard a still small voice in my spirit say, "It's time to write the second book!" I whispered in question, "What?" I wondered what the Holy Spirit was up to and I laid down on my bed and pondered the fearful dream. The Holy Spirit downloaded the vibrant dream I had experienced in my late twenties. My soul was flooded with visual and vivid flashbacks of my amazing dream. The date of my second dream was 2/14/2013.

Caleb's Spirit was written and shelved in 2015, while I continued to write other books. I tried to open word document containing Caleb's Spirit over the past years, but the file was corrupted and would not open. I often wondered why the file would not open. On 11/21/20, I attempted to open the corrupted file again and the same error message appeared on my computer screen. I transferred the corrupted file to a zip drive. I transferred the corrupted file to my new computer. Mind you, I followed this same transfer from computer to computer before with no success. I hesitantly opened the word file on the zip drive and to my utmost surprise the document opened. I am a firm believer that God corrupted my file until He wanted the book released. This e-book will cost you nothing but your time. God has directed me release the e-book for free. The return of Jesus Christ is upon us; be ready!

Chapter 1

The scene enters a soft and glowing moonlight window of Luke's bedroom as he is peacefully sleeping. Luke jolts awake from a fearful and mind shaking dream. The primitive and dreadful dream caused him to jump out of bed and stand to attention. Luke observes his alarm clock blinking 12:37PM. The dream caused Luke's body to sweat profusely, and his bed sheets are soaked with perspiration. Luke flops back on his soaked sheets and coolness shivers his heated body. Human chills overtake his body and thoughts, and fear penetrated his soul even more. Fear grips Luke as he ponders the fearful dream. Luke whispers, "The time is short, Jesus is about to return." Luke senses an uneasy feeling of urgency and mixes with fear as he mumbles, "Something is really wrong, I sense it."

Luke jumps out of bed and stumbles to the bathroom and showers. In the shower, the full revelation of his dream penetrates his mind. Luke says out loud, "It has started." He turns off the shower nozzle and steps out of the shower and dried off with a bath towel. Luke hustles downstairs to the living room. Luke cannot shake this unusual and sick feeling in his spirit. Luke says, "Maybe something big is happening in the world," so he grabs his remote turns on the TV and flips through the news channels. Nothing super unusual is being reported on the cable news channels. The news is reporting peace, wars, and rumors of wars, and plenty of natural disasters. Israel and Palestine continue to fight over the holy land, while other countries threaten to destroy Israel. Terrorists kill another news reporter, again. Another deadly earthquake struck the Middle East. Luke says, "God, please give the meaning to my dream!" Luke taps the power button off and the TV goes dark. Luke fell back to sleep and mumbles, "War, peace, rumors of war and more craziness," or so he thought.

Luke is transported to a dreamlike state where the Holy Spirit reminds Luke of the spiritual weapons he has stored in the basement. Luke awakens hustles down the stairs to the basement. A large wooden cedar chest is in the right corner of the basement. The chest is tucked behind a few plastic storage-bins. Luke slides the plastic totes away from the wooden chest and says, "Lord, I never thought this day would come, is it time? Pour out Your spirit and strength on my soul!" Luke lifts the chest lid and observes a soft glowing light surround three weapons that rest at on bottom of the chest. A fresh scent of cedar permeates Luke's nostrils, while he inhales a deep breath and exhales frustration. The soft glowing light gently rests on the weapons, while illumination reflects off Luke's eyes of soulful fascination. Luke is startled by seeing the three weapons glowing. A voice from heaven says, "Luke, do you remember?" Luke mumbles, "Yes."

The heavenly voice jars Luke's memories to life as his past thought patterns download in his memory. Luke recalls the meaning of the powerful dream. Luke recollects his dream when God spoke to him. Luke's past dream startles him with a bright brilliant light. A bright light appears off in the distance sky. Luke looks up in the sky and over top of him is a fierce storm and swirling dark clouds and flashes of lighting and peeling sounds of thunder shake his flesh. Luke looks down at the ground and observes two sets of railroad tracks. Luke observes a train sitting motionless one set of tracks. Off in the distant horizon, Luke observes a light of another train heading towards him. The moving train is approaching fast. Luke steps away from the train tracks. The ground surrounding Luke begins to mildly shake. Luke steps further away from the vibrating train tracks. The sheer force of the locomotive's engine powerfully rattles the ground around Luke. The train roars past Luke in mere moments. The train shakes Luke's body and the ground he is standing on. The rushing air buffets Luke's soul, and he smells the odor of burnt coal mixing with steam. Just after the train roars by Luke, a large side of raw beef flesh fell from heaven and crashes on the ground. A heavenly voice the sounding like rushing waters says, "Fear me and learn of my ways!" Luke bends his knee to the ground and bows in reverence to the God of all creation. Luke is transported to a part of the heaven that is unknown to most men.

Luke materializes before an ancient warrior. The warrior is silent, and silence is awkward for Luke. The warrior sports short brown hair and crystal-clear eyes that penetrate Luke's soul. The warrior is wearing is black and green uniform. Luke inquisitively observes the warrior's uniform. The uniform is made of a thick leathery material and is colored with a black and green sheen of vibrant colors. The green color covers the warrior's upper body, and his thighs, shins and boots look like one solid piece of black leather. The uniform is tightly fitting to the warrior's thighs, calves, ankles, and feet. The uniform resembles a scuba suit. A large sword is held in the warrior's righthand. The ancient warrior is fierce and intimidating. Luke observes a three-prong dagger mounted in a chest sheath on the warrior. The most unusual weapon the warrior has is a wooden war club. The war club look consists of a long narrow and rugged shaft and is slightly curved at the end of the club. The wooden club is about four foot in length and is rough and hewn of wood and bark. The ancient warrior escorts Luke to an open arena. The arena resembles a Roman style structure and is massive in size. This building is a heavenly structure. Luke looks around the circular building. The coliseum is about sixty to seventy stories in height and rises high in the heaven where clouds cover the true height of the structure. Luke is awe-struck with visual realities of God's spiritual world. The dream or vision is embedded in Luke's mind forever. Luke will never forget this powerful image of the coliseum.

Every arched bay of the impressive Roman style structure has two soldiers sparring with one another. Luke cannot count the arched bays and can guess there is hundreds of thousands of arches in the heavenly building. Luke looks around the coliseum and observes many different warriors dressed in hundreds of thousands of different military uniforms. Luke recognizes a couple of the military uniforms from earth, but hundreds of thousands of unusual uniforms confuses Luke's mind. Hundreds of thousands of armor designs and colors fill the coliseum with God's glory. The ancient warriors sport many unusual weapons of war. Many languages fill the coliseum as each warrior utter growls, snarls, and grunts as they spar with one another. Luke is captivated by sounds and images of clamoring and dull roaring screams, grunts, and groanings of ancient men of war. Metallic flashes from the weapons create thousands of sparks and illuminate the coliseum. Luke is awe of this structure and bends his knees to the stone floor and observes the warrior's spar. Luke is interrupted by an annoying tapping sound on his chest armor. Luke stands from bowed knee and turns to the sound. The ancient warrior is holding two swords in his hands. The warrior held out a sword Luke to grab. Luke hesitantly grabs the handle of the sword. The sword is ancient looking. The warrior says nothing to Luke and motions Luke to spar with him. The ancient warrior raises his sword and motions Luke to raise the sword in the same battle stance. Luke follows each movement made by warrior in repetition after repetition. Step for step, twist by twist, turn for turn, swing of swing, roll to roll, push with push, jab for jab, thrust for thrust is taught to Luke. The warrior instructs Luke in many different hand-to-hand combat technics. The training session continues for many hours. During this time, the warrior says nothing to Luke. Luke struggles with the brutish strength of the ancient warrior's battle-hardened body. Luke endures many mistakes during his marathon training session with the ancient warrior. Then, suddenly, a priest appears in the middle of the coliseum and blows a shofar. The coliseum filled with warriors grew immediately silent. The ancient warriors stop sparing with one another and walk out of the coliseum. Luke looks at the ancient warrior and says, "Why have the warriors stopped sparring?" The ancient warrior hands Luke a large wooden war club. A tiny piece of God's glory is embedded in the tip of the war club. The warrior hands Luke a three-prong dagger. The warrior finally says something to Luke in instruction, "The sword is an offensive and defensive weapon used to fight fallen angels. The war club is your most powerful weapon because it will clear your path when the enemy hinders your victory. The three-prong dagger is for self-defense when you cannot use the sword or war club. The dagger will be used on the enemy and on your closest friends who have become your enemies." Luke is about to ask a question, when the warrior says, "The time for battle has not come, but will be in the future. Train yourself and pray for the one who betrayed you! There is still hope for that person." The warrior concludes his instructions and looks at Luke. Luke turns away from the ancient warrior one more time and observes the massive coliseum jutting up in the heaven. The ancient warrior dematerializes from behind Luke. Luke turns around the ask the ancient warrior another question, but the warrior is gone. Suddenly, Luke's amazing dream concludes as he whispers, "Macom."

Chapter 2

Luke has continually prayed for the spirit of Caleb to rest upon soul for many years. He ponders the meaning of his vivid dream and the training session with the ancient warrior. Luke whispers, “Lord, I continually pray for the spirit of Caleb to rest in me, but what does my dream mean?” Luke thought of the many attributes of Caleb. The first Caleb believed God could do anything. Caleb had an unusual spirit that was given to him by God. God commended Caleb for his unusual spirit of belief. Every warrior in Luke’s dream looked to be in perfect health and contained exceptional strength, speed, and agility; just as the first Caleb. The lord has sustained these ancient men and women for the final battle at Armageddon. Since the first Caleb in the Bible, God had created hundreds of thousands of new Caleb spirits. The massive coliseum filled with ancient warriors is forever burned in Luke’s memory. Luke’s supernatural dream propels him to pray for the spirit of Caleb every day. God has granted Luke’s request and the spirit of Caleb is manifesting in Luke’s body and spirit continually.

The first Caleb prayed, talked, and worshipped God with faithfulness. Do you know what Caleb’s name means? Caleb’s name means “A dog” and Caleb’s name should humble every Christian. With a name like Caleb, very few people dare to ask God for this unusual spirit. Who wants to be known as a dog? Caleb was commended by God as having an unusual spirit. A dog is loyal to his Master. A dog is mans’ best friend. Caleb could be known as God’s best friend. Few men and women seek God for this unusual and powerful spirit, and only God knows how many souls have been granted the spirit Caleb. Who would be crazy enough to ask for the spirit of Caleb? The person who is given the spirit of Caleb will suffer great hardship in life. Nothing will be easy, and most Christians will think that God has cursed the Christian dog. The average Christian does not comprehend what the Caleb spirit envelopes with spiritual treasures and blessings. God sustains the spirit and body. Men continually search for the fountain of youth, well, here you go, the spirit of Caleb. How many eighty-five-year-old people do you know that could go into battle? Some Christians do not believe that God can do all things and fall away from God’s best and settle for a second-rate faith. Christian inaction seems to be the choice for most Christians, but God does not reward the lazy Christian way. Spiritual hard work is not for the faint of heart. A spiritual and dogged determination is what will get results in the Kingdom of God.

The telltale sign of a Caleb spirit is the same today as in the ancient days when Joshua and Caleb trod the desert. The person who is granted this unusual spiritual gift will show faithful actions towards God, Jesus, and mankind. The first clue of a Caleb is a long-life span. The second is a strong physical body in old age. The third is harder to distinguish because it is spiritual and can be extremely deceiving to the carnal Christian. Have you ever met a person who believes God can do anything? Do you know a person who worships God alone in Church or will not be intimidated by what man says? The spirit of Caleb is not worried about what man thinks, but only what God and Jesus think. The spiritual and physical attributes of Caleb is totally sold out for Jesus. The gutsy Caleb mentality will never put God and Jesus in a box.

Chapter 3

Luke pulls the sword and belt from the war chest and fastens the belt around his waist. He grabs the war club and shoulder sling from the chest and straps the sling around his shoulder and chest. He momentarily stares at the three-prong dagger and sheath for a hesitating second. Luke pulls the dagger from the chest and straps the weapon to his chest. Luke's arms uncontrollably raise in the air and his feet spread apart. He looks at his arms as a scout uniform materializes and covers his entire body. Luke looks down at his legs and feet and observes the uniform materialize and wrap around his lower body. Luke cannot fathom his mysterious transformation that morphs his body into a warrior. He experiences a fantastic surge of energy penetrate every cell in his body. Luke's body and spirit transform to half man and half angel. Luke's eyes illuminate with God's energy and Luke looks right through his hands. Luke mumbles, "That's weird." Luke has x-ray vision and sees through flesh and spirit. Luke is about to ask God a question when his body juts up in the air and transports to heaven. Luke's home has a hole in the first and second floor and roof as he blasts upward. Luke passes through the first and second Heaven and proceeds very edge of the third Heaven. God, Jesus Christ, and the angels are in the final preparations for the invasion of earth. The return of Jesus Christ is upon us. The last hours of final preparations unfold before Luke's eyes. Luke observes billions of angels in formations covering the landscape of heaven. Luke moves forward and is stopped by an invisible force-field that hinders him from entering the third Heaven. Luke looks down at his feet and sees a pearly white floor. Luke looks to his right and left and observes many ancient scouts file into formation. The scouts are wearing the same style of uniform that Luke is wearing. Thousands upon thousands of scouts have been pulled from earth. These earthly scouts materialize to the left and right of Luke. Hundreds of thousands of battle-ready scouts prepare for the final collection. In a twinkling of an eye, millions of additional ancient scouts materialize and fall in formation. The earthly scouts fall back in formation and behind the ancient scouts. Luke is in the last row of scouts. The scouts begin walking towards the throne of God, but access is denied by twelve giant angels. The final instructions for deployment to earth begin. The scouts are blinded by holy presence of God which is as brilliant as ten thousand suns. The scout's green and black uniforms turn pure white and glisten with a brilliant pearl white sheen. God's presence hovers in front of the scouts. The face of every scout is transparent and iridescence and transforms each scout to angelic status. God waves his hand over the scouts. Luke is consumed with God's holy indignation towards wickedness. God is about to unleash vengeance on wicked men and Lucifer and the fallen angels. Luke's heart pumps rapidly and burns with fire and power of God. Luke's eye's turn to a piercing bright white. Every scout is strong and mighty. Luke's fibrous muscles strands grow and contract with electrical synapse and chemical charges and intertwine and fell like flesh and rock. Luke squeezes and flexes all his muscles tightly as he experiences tightness in his fleshly body. Luke feels quick change in his body and experiences the feeling of immortality. Luke mumbles, "Upon this solid rock I stand.” A giant angel appears, and thrusts beams of brilliant light at the scouts. The bright light penetrates every scout’s throat and imparts the language of heaven. Luke’s heart and mind receive knowledge and language of heaven. Luke praises God. The truest, righteous, and the most holy words Luke has ever uttered from his mouth flows from his mouth and loud noises trickle from his tongue. Luke’s voice sounds like peaceful running waters as his tongue wiggles. The scouts kneel and tap their right fist on their armor in humble reverence to God. The scouts swear an oath of holy allegiance to God and the supremacy of Jesus Christ. Jesus observes the impartation of the heavenly language to the scouts. Jesus turns his back on the scouts and drifts towards the throne of God and continues the preparations. Macom materializes before the scouts and says, “The days of grace have been completed and Judgment will soon come. God has chosen the scouts for one final mission on earth. Jesus Christ is about to return to the Mount of Olives. In the last hours of fallen mankind, God will pour out His Holy Spirit on all flesh. The scouts have been given the power to reclaim the lost souls who once were saved. The many tragic reasons Christians walked away from Jesus Christ will have one more chance. This direct order is from the throne of God, assist the lost souls to salvation before the final destruction. Every scout has been given a tablet. Every tablet has one hundred names inscribed in a contact list. These names are of people who have walked away from the faith in Jesus Christ.” Macom lifts his hands over all the scouts and shouts, “Ninety-Nine people that must be brought back to the Lord! The last person is the one who betrayed you. Once every scout has talked with the 99 people about God’s love and grace, the last name will appear. Jesus left the 99 sheep to search out the one lost sheep. You must forgive that person who sinned against you and successfully complete your mission!” Silence is amongst the scouts. Macom shouts, “We have eleven earthly hours to complete this mission! Are you ready?” The scouts shout and roar with exuberant gladness. Macom shouts, “Scouts, you have been entrusted with the final revival of mankind. I will be commanding this operation from the principalities of the air and failure is not an option! The first two scouts, Joshua and Caleb will spearhead this operation.” Joshua and Caleb materialize at the front of the scout divisions. Macom shouts, “Divide into two divisions and fall in formation behind Joshua and Caleb! It is time to go into the Promise Land!” Macom supernaturally jumps ahead of Joshua and Caleb and spearheads the trek to earth.

The scouts begin leaping and darting towards earth as their uniforms change from brilliant white to blue and white. During the brief journey back to earth, the scout’s uniform morph to the original green and black color. The battle-hardened scouts prepare for the greatest challenge of their life and must assist the souls of mankind to salvation in the last hours of humanity. The scouts believed they had been prepared for a physical battle against flesh, blood, fallen angels, and wicked men in high places. Who would have thought that the final battle would be for millions of souls? The return of Christ Jesus is eminent. The third dimension closed, as the second dimension quickly passed, and the first dimension slows the division of scouts from great speed. The scouts feel the pull of the planet’s atmosphere and gravity and suck the scouts to earth. Intense heat and fire encapsulate every scout, and one starburst explosion scatters millions of scouts. The scouts fly and land at their assigned Church. It is time for the final revival on earth. Luke's body slows as volatile air friction and air displacement jolts his body with intense heat and violent shaking. Luke hit the ground running. A thunderous thud and unusual whistling sound, stirs the silent night. Luke's uniform smolders from the intense heat. Luke is standing near the Church he once attended. Luke is in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Luke's chain reaction of light and thunder roars throughout the night sky and lightening streaks across the dark horizon. The soft sounds of rain arise gently in the distant sky and heavenly raindrops begin to land on Luke and the earth. God begins to take His world by storm. God's gentle rain fell from heaven as the raging spiritual storm spins around the earth in silence. Each scout steps from God's turf and unto the cement pavement created by man. Luke listens to the sounds of booms and thuds softly shake the earth. Luke experiences heaviness and density and thickness overtake his body. Luke experiences a feeling of indestructability. The short rain shower tapers off around the world. Large hail stones smash unto the ground. Luke listens to pelting slaps and thuds of hailstones hit his heavenly armor. Luke is annoyed by the sudden hailstorm. Luke is agile as an angel and solid as a rock. Luke is ready for any type of battle. Luke jumps up in the air and lands on the pavement of the Church parking lot. Luke's combat boots left deep imprints on the pavement. Luke kicks a basketball size hail stone high in the air. Luke is reminded of the scriptures found in the Revelation 8 verse 7, and 11 verse 19, and 16 verse 20 where hail stones are mentioned. Luke whispers, "The Great Tribulation is surrounding the earth." Luke concentrates his mind, and he levitates above the ground and floats through the air. Luke is hovering a few feet off the ground. Luke lifts higher and notices his uniform change colors. The uniform transforms from a color of green and black to white and blue. Luke descends back to earth and his uniform morphs back to a green and black color. Luke feels like a butterfly that has taken flight for the first time. Luke says, "If Christians understood what God has in store for them, they would never lose faith."

Chapter 4

Luke recognizes the light brown car in the parking lot and says, "Allen must be praying." Luke floats to the outside wall of the Church. Luke hesitantly touches the wall and supernaturally steps through the wall. Luke's boot passes through the wall and then the rest of his body follows through the Church wall and into the sanctuary. Luke whispers under his breath, "That felt really cool." Allen is praying on his knees in the sanctuary. The spotlight on the pulpit beams down and illuminates Allen. Luke floats towards Allen and put his hand on Allen's shoulder. A gentle breeze from Luke's angelic wings softly surrounds Allen's body. Allen is startled by Luke's presence. Allen turns his head and observes Luke standing by him. Allen says, "Luke, what a surprise, how did you get in here? The Church doors are locked." Luke says, "I was wondering around Cedar Rapids, I had a hunch you were praying at the Church." Allen hugs Luke and says, "Since Katy passed, praying comforts me. I am lonely guy. There's something different about you, but I can't put my finger on it." Luke snickers and laughs as he says, "Tell me about it, I feel different too. How is the Church doing?" Allen says, "Pastor Paul is struggling with a couple personal issues, and I am not at liberty to talk about his issues." Luke says, "I'm sorry to hear that." Allen looks at Luke and says, "Something has changed in you. You feel super solid." Luke wanted to tell Allen about Jesus returning, but cannot whisper about the coming invasion. Luke says, "I ask you one thing, stay and pray and intercede for Pastor Paul! I will take care of the rest!" Allen says, "I plan to pray for Pastor Paul all night." Luke slaps Allen on the back and says, "I'll see you soon!" Allen turns from Luke and knelt by the alter. Allen quickly turns to say something to Luke, but Luke has vanished. Allen whispers, "This night is unusual."

Chapter 5

Luke exits the Church and opens his tablet. The first name on the list is Pastor Paul. Luke is taken to the home of Pastor Paul. Pastor Paul is sitting in his home office and reading when Luke materializes in front of Pastor Paul's desk. Pastor Paul is startled and says, "What on earth?" Luke says, "Do not be afraid, I am here to help!" Pastor Paul says, "Help, what do you mean?" Luke has the ability to read Pastor Paul's mind and says, "You are struggling with believing God exists, why? Did I read your mind?" Pastor Paul is defensive and says, "How can you read my mind? Is there a God?" Luke says, "Hit me!" Paul says, "What?" Luke says, "Punch me with your fist!" Pastor Paul says, "No!" Luke looks at Pastor Paul and demands Paul punch him. Pastor Paul refuses. Luke says in a voice of trickling waters, "I command you to punch me, in the name of Jesus Christ!" Pastor Paul's body uncontrollably hurls his right fist at Luke's chest. Pastor Paul's fist hit Luke's chest armor. Pastor Paul's hand is broken in multiple locations. Pastor Paul screams in shaking and agonizing pain as his knuckles begin to bleed and the torn flesh torn swells covering the metacarpal bones. Pastor Paul holds his right hand in agonizing pain. Luke softly touched Pastor Paul's right hand and Pastor Paul winces in pain. Luke says, "In the name of Jesus Christ, be healed!" A supernatural wave of heavenly healing exits Luke's mouth and swirls around Pastor Paul's fist and his hand is healed. Pastor Paul lifts his hand up in the air as his damaged bones and torn skin experiences a tingling sensation. Pastor Paul's pain is gone, and he observes dried blood covering his damaged knuckles dry and torn flesh knit back together. Pastor Paul is amazed by God's miraculous healing power. Luke sternly says, "Suck it up Pastor Paul and stop your doubting! You are a man of God." Pastor Paul is in shock and has many questions for Luke. Luke commands Pastor Paul to drive to Church and pray with Allen. Pastor Paul says, "How do you know Allen?" Luke says, "Allen and I have been good friends for a long time. I attended the Church before you were the Pastor." Just as Pastor Paul is going to ask Luke another question, Luke dematerialized from sight. The Holy Spirit whispers to Pastor Paul, "Stop your doubting!"

Pastor Paul is extremely fearful as he bolts towards his kitchen table and grabs his car keys on the table and crazily hustles out the front door. Pastor Paul is erratically driving his car and speedily rounds the Church driveway and enters the parking lot. He slams his feet on the brake pedal and the car screeches to a halt. He quickly opens the car door and hustles to the Church door and quickly unlocks the door and rushes inside. Pastor Paul enters the sanctuary and sees Allen praying. Pastor Paul yells at the top of his lungs, "Allen, you won't believe what just happened to me." Allen is about to fall asleep in prayer when he is startled awake by frantic yelling. Allen says, "What's wrong, are you okay?" Pastor Paul attempts to calm himself and says in between heavy breathing, "Your friend, Luke, appeared in my study, and told me to stop doubting, and made me punch him, and my hand broke, and Luke healed my hand. Luke told me to come to Church and pray with you!" Pastor Paul is still breathing heavily. Allen says, "Please calm down, you are not making any sense.” Pastor Paul says, “What is that guy made of?” Allen musses and says, “Possibly rock, titanium, I do not know.” Allen is reminded of when he hugged Luke and Luke felt super solid. Allen asks Pastor Paul how Luke appeared to him. Pastor Paul says, “I was in my study and reading when Luke materialized before my eyes. After our conversation, Luke disappeared, like a ghost.” Allen kept quiet and says nothing to Pastor Paul. Pastor Paul says, “Do you know Luke?” Allen says, “Yes. I have known Luke for many years, Luke attended this Church back in the day.” Pastor Paul says, “What kind of Christian is he?” Allen smiles and says, “You can count on Luke. Luke is a good friend. Luke has a passion for God and Christ Jesus. Luke believes God can do anything. Luke would spend many hours in this sanctuary, praying and worshipping God. Luke worshipped God and Jesus alone. As a young man, Luke suffered a great loss and he never recovered from the loss.” Allen looks down at the ground. Pastor Paul says, “What happened to Luke?” Allen says, “I can’t tell you.” Allen changes the subject and quickly says, “Pastor Paul, what is going on with you?”

Chapter 6

Luke is hovering in the heavens and opens his tablet, and the second name materializes. Luke whispers, "Sandy." Luke is abruptly taken by a gust of wind and to the downtown area of 1st avenue, where he gently materializes and is standing on the sidewalk. Luke is at a stand-still when a young woman bumps into him. The young woman is startled by Luke standing in front of her and says, "Oh, sorry, I didn't mean to bump into you." Luke says, "Are you alright?" The young woman says, "I'm fine, but startled a bit." Luke says, "What's your name?" The young woman says, "Sandy." A word from the Lord enters Luke's mind and he says, "Your name is Sandra Ann Richards, and you accepted the Lord in August of 2015. You have turned away from God because your boyfriend, broke your heart. You really loved Jeff. You were in High School when the break-up occurred." Sandy is surprised by Luke's revelation. Luke continues to say, "You were hurt and angry with God and started doing drugs to ease the memory of Jeff. Now, you can't get clean from drugs." Sandy is a bit frightened and irritated by Luke's revelation and she defensively says, "What kind of nut job are you?" Luke placed his hand on Sandy's shoulder and a calming peace enters her spirit and body as she experiences God's love and peace. Luke says, "You love God, and you must listen to me! I'm here to help you." Luke extends his hand and Sandy touches his hand and the two souls lift and hover in the air. Luke says, "You are going to Church, and must get right with God!" Sandy says with a wild-eyed look, "There is no Church open tonight," while screaming in fear as they hurtle through the night sky. Luke grips Sandy's hand tight and says, "There is one Church open." A mighty swirling rush of wind and Luke and Sandy approach the Church. The two souls slow from flight and softly land on the cement steps of the Church. The front doors of the Church mysteriously open and welcome Sandy. Sandy says, "This is not happening to me. Those new drugs are mind blowing." Luke says, "Walk in the Church and tell Pastor Paul and Allen more people will be coming to Church. Turn on all the lights and open all the Church windows and get ready!" Sandy says, "I'm scared, will you walk with me into the sanctuary?" Luke kindly agrees to walk Sandy into the sanctuary. Luke opens the doors to the sanctuary and Sandy walks in the sanctuary. Luke is gone in a gust of wind and Sandy is holding the door open and sheepishly looking at Pastor Paul and Allen. Sandy did not know what to say, so she turns around and is about to leave when Allen says, "Luke brought you here, didn't he?" Sandy says in a semi sober voice, "I do not think he is a man, he picked me up from downtown and we flew in the air to the Church. We walked in the sanctuary and Luke disappeared like an angel or ghost or something." Pastor Paul and Allen look at each other in awe and wonder and consider Luke's sudden arrival to Church. Pastor Paul says to Sandy, "Do you know the Lord?" Sandy says nothing to Pastor Paul or Allen and hustles to the alter and lay prostrate on the floor. Sandy pours out her heart and soul while weeping profusely and asking God for forgiveness. Paul and Allen feel the power of Holy Spirit fill the sanctuary and a cloud of haze and mist fill the air. The revival just started in Cedar Rapids. Pastor Paul, Allen, and Sandy pray in humbling reverence to the presence of God that enters the Church. After about ten minutes, Sandy says, "I almost forgot to tell you." Pastor Paul says, "What?" Sandy says, "Turn every light on in the Church and open all the windows! There will be more people coming to Church." Pastor Paul excitedly says, "We better turn on all the lights and open every window." Pastor Paul, Allen, and Sandy turn on every light and open every window in the Church. The three souls wait in the sanctuary and wonder what will happen next.

Chapter 7

Luke is hovering in the air above the city, when he opens the tablet and whispers, "Wendy." Luke materializes in front of a white colonial home. Luke listens to a woman's muffled cry for help. Luke hustles to the front door of the home and opens the front door. Luke observes a man on top of a woman and forcing himself on her in a sexual manner. Luke watches for a split second as the woman gave into the man's brute force. Luke is concerned and shouts, "Hey Jerk, what are you doing?" The man is startled and says, "You pervert, what are you doing here?" Luke says, "Are you raping her?" The man lunges at Luke and attempts to strike Luke, but his fist hit Luke in the jaw. The rapist's hand broke on Luke's rock-hard jaw. Luke says in a snug tone of voice, "Why don't you pick on someone your own size, like me!" The man lunges at Luke in a crazy and stupid rage. Luke instantly grabs the man by the back of the neck and kicks the man out the front door. The man helplessly tumbles through the air and unto the front lawn and rests on his back. The rapist focuses his eyes to heaven for a split second. Luke shouts, "Leave, before I break your other hand." Luke hovers in the air and the man freaks out. The man jumps up and hustles down the street while screaming and yelling like an insane person. In the meantime, the woman had picked up her cell phone and is dialing 911. Luke appears in front of the woman and grabs the phone from her quivering hands. Luke says, "Wendy, play your piano! In the past, you were part of a praise and worship team." Wendy defiantly says, "Are you crazy? You are a nut job." Luke looks in Wendy's beautiful and stunned eyes and says, "I just saved you from being raped. Do you believe in divine appointments?" Wendy looks away from Luke and responds to his question. Wendy says, "I don't know what to believe right now, you broke in my home and beat up my boyfriend." Luke interrupts Wendy and laughs and jokingly says, "He's your boyfriend? He looked like a rapist to me." Wendy looks cockeyed at Luke and says, "He loves me," as she blew a puff of air up at her eye to blew away the hair from her eye. Luke says, "That is messed up love. God wants to be your husband. Will you play God a song?" Wendy defiantly says, "No." Luke commands Wendy to touch his hand. Wendy's left hand reluctantly, hesitantly, and irritatingly is forced to touch Luke's hand. A sudden rush of wind and the sound of angelic wings flapping causes Luke and Wendy to be airborne. The two souls float out the front door of Wendy's home and speed towards the Church. Luke kindly says to Wendy in the soft breeze of flight, "Wendy, after your husband divorced you and left you for another woman, you became angry and bitter. You gave up on God, but God never gave up on you." With the sound of angelic wings Luke and Wendy touch down on the cement steps of the Church. Luke let go of Wendy's hand and says, "If you feel any love left for God and Jesus, go in Church and walk to the piano and start playing your heart out! You must pray, praise, worship, and repent and ask God for forgiveness!" Wendy is bitter and hardened from a hurting heart. Wendy defiantly says, "No!" Wendy screams at Luke and stomps her left foot on the step. Wendy looks like a little girl who is hurting and angry. Luke has no other choice but to grab Wendy by the waist and drag her towards the sanctuary. Luke kicks open the doors and Wendy helplessly staggers in the sanctuary. Wendy trips, crashes and tumbles to her knees. Wendy's body sounds like luggage falling on the carpet floor. Pastor Paul, Allen, and Sandy see the doors bust open and a lady rolling to a stop on her knees. Sandy says with a twinkle in her eye and a smirk on her face, "Now that is and dramatic entrance." The woman quickly stands and is about to leave, when Sandy says, "Lady, what is your story?" Wendy defiantly huffs and puffs and says, "Little girl, what's it to you?" Sandy smiles and smirks with street smart attitude and says, "Let me guess, he's about 6 feet tall and wearing green and black suit of armor and he brought you here." Sandy is filled with the Holy Spirit and says, "Wendy, play the piano and get right with God!" Wendy's hardened heart softens just a bit, while she looks at Sandy and hesitantly stares at the piano. Wendy timidly walks to the piano in a defiant and trashed spirit and plops down on the piano bench in humble weakness. Wendy reaches over to the right side of the bench and cranks the knob a few times and adjusts the piano bench. Wendy stares at the black and white piano keys for a while and feels spiritual numbness. Wendy plays a couple of off-key notes at first, then a few random chords. In utter frustration, Wendy slides her hands over the black and white piano keys and is sad. The piano vibrates with clunking and mixed and messy vibrations. Wendy's life has not gone the way she planned. Wendy's broken heart is full of fear from her divorce. Wendy feels unworthy from the love of God and man. Finally, a child-like chorus enters Wendy's mind, "Yes, Jesus Loves me." The child-like song cracks Wendy's stone-cold heart as she burst out sobbing. Wendy weeps over the piano keys. Sandy walks over to the piano and observes tears falling from Wendy's cheeks. The teardrops splash onto the black and white keys of the piano. Sandy lovingly says to Wendy as she put her hand on Wendy's shoulder, "I know what it's like to turn away from God. I lost the love of my life too." Wendy says, "I need a hug!" Sandy hugs Wendy and says, "I hear you can play the piano." Wendy wipes the tears from her swollen eyelids and cheeks and says, "It has been so long, I don't think I can do it." "Pastor Paul, Allen and I will continue to pray. It would be nice to hear you play the piano and worship God." Sandy walks away from Wendy. Wendy sits on the piano bench and leans over piano keys and wept bitterly. Wendy whispers prayers of sorrow and regret to Jesus. Wendy's heart is scarred and barely beating. God covers Wendy in His love. She wipes the tears of heartbreak from her eyes and begins to play the piano while softly crying, weeping, and saying nothing. Wendy looks to heaven with her lips tight together in agony. Wendy's life was such a spiritual mess as she struggles and softly presses on the piano keys. Wendy asks God for the spirit of praise. Sandy stands from kneeling and fills in the empty piano silence with notes of soft harmonizing sounds. Wendy looks at Sandy and slowly follows Sandy's humming lead. Sandy sounds like an angel praising God. Soon, Pastor Paul, Allen, Sandy, and Wendy praise the Lord. The sanctuary is filled with the Holy Spirit of praise. Wendy's heart is softened by God and she sings praise to God.

Chapter 8

Luke hurtles in the air towards Monticello. Luke is making zig-zag streaks across the sky with his wings. Luke is testing his angelic wings in flight while tumbling in the air end over end. Luke is having fun flying. Suddenly, Luke's wings spread out and he stops in mid-flight. Luke opens his tablet and says, "Dusty." Luke's wings tuck close to his back and he drops out of the sky like a ton of bricks. A car is parked in a cornfield. Luke smooched the trunk of a parked car and bounced to the ground. A young man is sitting on the hood of his car and is holding a gun to his head. The young man helplessly tumbles in the air and lands on top of Luke. Luke quickly kicks the young man away from him and stood to his feet. The young man tumbles helplessly in the air and lands in the cornfield. Luke mumbles, "Great, now I have to find this dude in a cornfield." The young man is dazed and confused and wobbly and stood to his feet. Luke is beating his way through the corn stalks. In a split second, the two man are face and looking at each other. The young man is startled and points his gun at Luke. Luke raised his hands in the air. The young man says in anger, "What the hell?" Luke amusingly says, "You have got it all wrong, you should say what the Heaven?" The hands of the young man are shaking, and he accidentally flinched, and the hair trigger released, and the weapon fired. The bullet ricochets off Luke's chest and whizzed into the cornfield. The bullet ricochets off a few corn stalks and thuds to the ground. The young man is surprised that Luke is bullet proof. Luke says, "Were you going to kill yourself?" The young man defiantly says, "What's it to you?" Luke says, "Does not matter to me, I don't know you from Adam, but it matters to God. What's your name?" The young man says with a wimpy quivering voice, "My name is Dusty. Why are you here?" Luke says, "Dusty, salvation is a moment away. Grab my hand and do not let go! I will show you why it matters." Dusty hesitantly tosses the pistol to the ground and the weapon hit the ground and fires again. Another bullet hits Luke in the shoulder and ricochets off Luke. Luke looks at Dusty in disgust and says, "Really?" Dusty smirks with a laugh and grabs hold of Luke's hand. The two men lift in the air and rush towards Cedar Rapids. A violent sudden blast of rushing wind jolts Luke and Dusty. Dusty is about to lose grip of Luke's hand and screams, "Help!" The air pressure begins to suck Dusty away from Luke's hand. Luke tightens his grip on Dusty's hand and forearm and says, "No body dies on my watch!" The two souls slow from great speed and land on the steps of the Church. Dusty steps forward and opens the door just a little and peeks in the Church. Dusty turns to ask Luke a question, but Luke is gone. Dusty opens the door and enters and says, "Hello, is there anyone in here?" Dusty steps in the front foyer of the Church. Pastor Paul heard a voice and quickly says, "Come in the sanctuary!" Pastor Paul walks to the back of the sanctuary and opens the doors and looks at a young man. Dusty looks at Pastor Paul with a wild eye expression. Pastor Paul says, "Looks like you just had an encounter with Luke." Dusty shakes his head and says in disbelief, "Who is that guy?" Pastor Paul lifts one eyebrow and says, "You got me? Every person here tonight desperately needed God's help. We experienced an intense crisis and Luke appeared." Dusty hung his head and says in a distraught voice, "I was about to blow my brains out when Luke crash landed on my car. I was startled and I shot Luke in the chest and the bullet bounced off his chest. Luke didn't even flinch from the bullet." Pastor Paul slaps Dusty on the back and says, "I think you need to get right with God and Jesus!" Dusty walks to the front of the sanctuary and listens to Wendy playing the piano and Sandy sweetly singing. Dusty sat down and is sad. Dusty bows his head and sits in the pew. Dusty shows no emotion on his face for some time. Wendy is observing Dusty as he sits in the pew. Wendy creates an unknown song of random notes and chords. Dusty listens to the peaceful piano music. Dusty closes his eyes and the music sounded heavenly. Dusty bows his head and ignores the piano music, but his hardened heart softens a bit. Dusty cannot hold back the powerful pressure of life. A tidal wave of flowing regret builds like a dam in Dusty's soul. God's love flows from the river of life. Dusty weeps just a little and more and finally more. Dusty weeps and cries out to God as he experienced the love of Christ overwhelm his soul. Dusty felt peace, love, and grace. Allen walks to Dusty and prays for Dusty. The Holy Spirit says to Dusty, "Thou shalt not kill, and that includes yourself."

Chapter 9

It is 11:17 PM and a middle age couple is arguing. Pebbles says to Rocky, "I don't love you anymore. I want a divorce!" Rocky says with a look of shock, "What?" Pebbles says again, "I want a divorce!" Luke is hovering over the city and his tablet materializes before his eyes. Luke says, "Rocky and Pebbles, two for the price of one!" Luke plummets and smashes through the roof of Rocky and Pebbles home. Luke is laying in a pile of rubble near the feet of Rocky and Pebbles. The husband and wife quickly dodge home debris. Rocky and Pebbles grab each other in fear for a split second, then push away from one another. Rocky and Pebbles start choking and coughing from the dust and debris that fills the air. Luke stands to his feet and says, "This is not getting any easier." Rocky is going to say something to Luke, when Luke says, "I don't have time." Luke grabs the wrist of Rocky and Pebbles and kicks open the back door. Luke, Rocky and Pebbles jut up in the air. Rocky and Pebbles scream in terrifying horror as they helplessly dangle in the air. Luke shouts to Rocky, "Do you really love Pebbles?" Rocky looks in Pebble's fearful eyes and says, "Yes!" In a flash of brilliant light, Rocky and Pebbles stand on the steps of the Church. The husband and wife look at each in dazed fear. The two souls are toe-to-toe and covered in dust and debris and look at each other in silence. At that very moment, Wendy is led in spirit and began playing a 1980's love song. The love song softly fills the night air and echoes through the hallway and out the Church doors. Rocky says to Pebbles, "They're playing our song." Pebbles looks away and then back in Rocky's eyes with a smirk on her face and says, "I know." Pebbles touches Rocky's chest with her index finger. Rocky says, "Why do you want a divorce?" Pebbles says, "You never tell me you love me anymore." Pebbles looks down at the ground then back in Rocky's questioning eyes. Pebbles held back her tears. Rocky interrupts Pebbles as she is going to say something and kisses her passionately. Pebbles defiantly pushes Rocky away from her body and says, "If you really mean it, let us walk in the Church and renew our vows!" Rocky grabs Pebbles by the hand and laces his fingers with Pebble's fingers. Pastor Paul walks to the front doors of the Church and observes Rocky and Pebbles holding hands and passionately looking into each-other's eyes. Rocky looks at Pastor Paul and says, "We want to renew our wedding vows! Will you renew our vows?" Pastor Paul smiles and says, "I would love to officiate your wedding vows. Follow me!" Pastor Paul grabs the hands of Rocky and Pebbles and led husband and wife in the sanctuary. The sanctuary doors open, and Pastor Paul says to Rocky, "Walk to the alter and stay!" Pastor Paul says to Pebbles, "Stay in the back and wait for the music play!" Pastor Paul says to Sandy, "Take the cut flowers from the vase next to the baptismal and give flowers to Pebbles!" Sandy hustles to the vase of flowers and grabs the red, yellow, and green tulips from the vase. Sandy hustles to Pebbles and handed the flowers to Pebbles. Sandy says to Pebbles, "Can I be your Maid of Honor?" Tears of joy trickle down the cheeks of Pebbles and she says, "I'd like that." Sandy hustles down the sanctuary isle and stands in the place. Rocky looks at the young man sitting in the front pew and says, "What's your name young man?" The young man says, "My name is Dusty." Rocky says, "Dusty, I need a best man, you up for the job?" Dusty says, "Yes." Rocky looks at Sandy and pulls off his wedding ring and tosses her the ring and says, "You'll need this!" Sandy caught Rocky's wedding ring. Pebbles pulls off her wedding ring and says to Pastor Paul, "Dusty will need this." Pastor Paul grabs Pebble's wedding ring and walks to the front of the sanctuary hands the ring to Dusty. Pastor Paul steps in front of the pulpit. Pastor Paul nods at Wendy and Wendy began to play the wedding song. Here cometh the Bride echoes in sanctuary of the Church and meanders outside and up in the night sky. Jesus listens to song from heaven, Pebbles walks to the front of the Church and stands next to Rocky. Rocky is reminded of how beautiful Pebbles was on the day of their wedding. After Wendy stopped playing the wedding music, Pastor Paul says to Wendy, "I need another Bridesmaid!" Wendy hesitantly stands to her feet and stood next to Sandy. Pastor Paul says to Allen, "I need another Groomsman!" Allen smiles and stood next to Dusty. Pastor Paul says, "Dear Friends, we are gathered here today to rejoin this man and this woman together in Holy matrimony." The Lord says in the book of Malachi, "I hate divorce."

Luke quietly watched the wedding ceremony from a small window in the back of the church. Rocky and Pebbles renewed their wedding vows. Luke recalls the time when he and his wife renewed their wedding vows. Tears trickle down Luke's rock-hard cheeks as sorrow fills his beating heart. Luke still suffers from the loss of his wife. Luke whispers, "I still love you," while he wipes a few tears from his cheeks. Luke turns and walks away from the sanctuary. Old memories of Luke's marriage and divorce weaken Luke and he wanted to give up the mission.

Chapter 10

Luke is floating away from the Church when he is blind-sided by a dark and ominous force. The dark force grabs Luke by the neck and hurtles him across the road and onto a cornfield. Luke helplessly tumbles end over end while being slapped in the face, back, arms, and legs with corn stalks. Luke finally tumbles to a battered and shaken stop. A fallen angel materializes over Luke and hovers. The fallen angel jumps on top of Luke and pulls a black sword from the sheath and says, "Remember me?" Luke forcefully kicks off the fallen angel and jumps to his feet. The fallen angel tumbles end over end a couple times and stands to his feet. Luke says, "What's your name?" The fallen angel says, "I'm the one who enticed your wife and she divorced you," as he laughs a hearty wicked chuckle. The fallen angel says, "My name is Julian, have you forgot our first encounter?" Luke is reminded of when he was going through his divorce and had been attacked by Julian in a dream. Luke has one scar on his body that proved the spiritual attack had taken place. Luke touched his shoulder and rage fills his spirit. Luke pulls his sword from the sheath and raises the sword over his head and points the steel tip towards Julian. Luke tilts the sword a little back as he grips the handle super tight. Julian listens to Luke's knuckles crack and pop from the sheer strength of his grip. Luke says, "I remember you." Julian lifts his sword to fight Luke when a bright brilliant light pierces the darkness and the ground shakes, and a blasting bang occurs. Luke and Julian are pounded by a rippling shockwave. Thousands of acres of corn stalks immediately flatten. Macom smash lands between Luke and Julian. The violent impact of Macom's landing shakes the ground and stirs up the earthly dust and corn pollen in the night sky. Macom pushes Luke to the side and Luke tumbles to the ground and rolls on top of flattened corn stalks. Macom says to Julian, "You want a piece of me?" Macom raises his sword in the air and advances three steps towards Julian. Macom's eyes turn a brilliant white and fill with a piercing light from heaven. Macom says, "I fear you not, in the name of Jesus Christ. Fallen one, be gone, before I cast you into the hell! You will not survive my judgement!" The fallen angel hovers a couple feet off the ground and says, "I'll be back!" Julian sneers and laughs at Macom and Luke. Macom turns to Luke who is visibly shaken. Luke says in amazement as he dusted off his uniform, "How did you do that?" Macom says, "When you are at your weakest point the enemy will attack. Always be on guard! You must continue your mission and your time is short. Contact all one hundred people on your list!" Macom shouts a warring battle threat in the dark night sky, "I'll be waiting, old friend now enemy!" The whole armor of God is with you, so that you withstand the wiles of the Devil.

Chapter 11

Macom grabs Luke by arm and hurtles Luke high in the air. Luke is wildly tumbling in the air and he pulls out the tablet and looks at the next name and he whispers, "Tiny?" Luke drops out of the sky and smash lands near two men. The two men are cursing and taunting each other as they clinch their fists in preparation to fight one another. Both men jump back when Luke crashed on the sidewalk. Luke stands to his feet and says, "I have got to get better at this landing stuff," and dusts off his uniform. Luke looks at the smaller of the men and says, "You must be Tiny?" The smallest man is 6'3" in height and about 275 pounds. The other man stands 6'7" in height and about 350 pounds. The biggest man interrupts Luke and says, "I am Tiny, what's it to you? You are little man and why are you wearing those green and black ferry clothes?" Luke laughs at Tiny's hilarious comment and says, "You should have a little more respect!" Tiny laughs at Luke and says, "Well, think you can kick my ass? Beat me, I will do what-ever you want! That's not happening!" Luke says, "If I whoop the both of you, you're both going to Church!" Tiny and Chuck clinch their fists together in defiance and brush their thumbs on their noses and prepare to fight. Tiny and Chuck square up in a boxing stance and wait for the confrontation to begin. Luke says, "Chuck, hit me first!" Chuck steps forward and punched Luke's midsection, but Luke does not flinch a bit and Chuck's fist bounces off Luke. Tiny arrogantly snickers a bit and steps forward and says, "Let me take care of this little ferry," and generates a smashing round-house swing at Luke's cheek. Tiny's fist bounces off Luke's cheek. Both men look at each other in amazement and jump on Luke and attempt to beat him. Luke grabs Tiny and Chuck by the back of the neck and slams their heads together. Both men are dizzy and staggering and stammering around the sidewalk while trying to recover. Luke taunts Tiny and Chuck by saying, "You two punks ready to give up?" Tiny and Chuck are not willing to give up and charge at Luke. The two men wildly swing their fists and yell as they attempt to hit Luke in the face and midsection. Luke dematerializes in a millisecond and the men pass by Luke's invisibility and Luke reappears. Luke charged at Tiny and Chuck. The two men attempt to inflict damage on Luke's body, but Luke blocks every bone crushing blow with an open hand. By the end of one-sided fight, Tiny and Chuck fell to the sidewalk in exhaustion and breathe heavily as they look at their bloody knuckles. Luke grabs the two men by the wrist and flew in the air and towards the Church. Luke came in for a low landing and entered the church. The exhausted bodies of the two men helplessly brush on the church floor. Luke stops at the sanctuary doors and kicks open the doors with his foot. Luke drags the stunned and battered men to the alter and roughly drops them on the floor. Pastor Paul is stunned by what he sees and indignantly says, "Luke, what did you do to these guys? What is your problem?" Luke kind of chuckles and says, "Pastor Paul, these two men tried to beat me up and yes, it was self-defense." Pastor Paul is angry and questions the two men. Tiny sits up brushed his long hair aside and says, "This guy is not human, he whooped my ass. Oops, sorry Pastor." Tiny then stands to his feet and walks to Luke and shakes Luke's hand. Tiny says, "I'm a man of my word, what do you want me to do?" Luke says, "A long time ago, you gave your heart to the Lord, but you were not baptized, do it!" Tiny cautiously walks to the alter and humbly knelt on both knees and opens his hardened heart to God. Tiny is clasping his bloody hands together and asking God for forgiveness for the rotten things he had done. Luke walks to baptismal and lifts the cover off and tosses the cover to the side. Luke twists open the water spigot and water fills the baptismal. Luke looks at Chuck and says, "You were not on my list, but that does not matter. You are guilty or blessed by association. You have a chance for salvation in Christ. What's going to be?" Chuck turns away from Luke and walks towards the back of sanctuary. Luke reminds Chuck of the agreement. Chuck stops in mid stride at Luke's comment, and he turns and directly looks at Luke. Chuck says, "Why should I believe in God?" Luke says, "If there is no God, what am I? Ask any person here." Dusty says, "I was going to blow my brains when Luke crash landed on my car. I accidentally shot Luke and the bullet bounced off. Luke is bullet-proof. Wendy says, "My boyfriend was raping me when Luke came in my home and rescued me." Sandy is the boldest of all and points her index finger in Chuck's chest and says, "If you leave this church without accepting Jesus it will be biggest mistake ever!" Pastor Paul says to Chuck, "May we pray for you?" Chuck has never had anyone pray for him and he reluctantly says, "Yes." Pastor Paul asks everyone to hold hands and pray for Chuck. Pastor Paul prays, "Lord, we are thankful for Chuck and we pray that Chuck experiences Your awesome love. Please touch Chuck's heart and melt his heaviness." Chuck is silent. Luke says, "I must go." Tiny says to Pastor Paul, "I need to be baptized!" Pastor Paul led Tiny to the baptismal and the two men step down into the water. Pastor Paul completes the sinner's prayer and attempts to baptize Tiny but Tiny is too big. Pastor Paul asks Chuck to help him baptize Tiny. Chuck hesitantly steps in the water with Pastor Paul and Tiny. Pastor Paul and Chuck baptize Tiny. Tiny came out of the water a new creation. Tiny is filled with the Holy Spirit. Tiny exuberantly hugs Pastor Paul. Tiny says to Pastor Paul, "I feel it, I feel clean. Dude you have got to try this!" Chuck did not expect Tiny to be so gracious. Thirty minutes before, Tiny was ready to beat Chuck's brains out. Chuck thought for a few seconds and says, "I will be baptized!" Pastor Paul smiles and says, "Chuck, you will never regret this decision, Jesus is the only way!" Pastor Paul says the sinner's prayer and baptizes Chuck, with help from Tiny. The rest of the Church group shouts and praises God and welcome Tiny and Chuck into God's Kingdom. Windy plays a few songs of praise and worship as the people sing and worship God. Pastor Paul is worshipping in spirit and he opens his eyes for second. Pastor Paul observes a big angel at the back of the sanctuary. The big angel is wearing a green and black uniform and looks a bit like Luke. The big angel dances for a couple seconds. Macom gives Pastor Paul the thumbs up sign and vanished from sight. Pastor Paul thought he is going crazy and does a double look at the angel, but Macom is gone. The angels in heaven rejoice when one lost sinner accepts Jesus as Lord and savior.

Chapter 12

Luke is gently floating on a puffy gray and white cloud when the moonlight pierced the cloud. The moonlight and cloud shadows over the local College campus. Luke's tablet opens and he whispers, "Tiffany." Luke listens to a young woman scream for help and immediately bolts from the cloud. Luke lands on the wet grass of the college campus and hustles towards the screaming, as the muffled cry of the woman is covered by the hand of an attacker. Luke observes the attacker subduing the young woman. Luke jumps up in the air and darts towards the attacker and grabs the attacker. Luke violently whips the attacker off the woman. The attacker helplessly tumbles in the air and bounces hard on the ground and rolls and flops to a dead stop. The attacker stands up and shakes his shoulders in wild defiance and pulls a large knife from his pocket. The attacker lunges towards Luke and attempts to kill Luke. Luke waits for the knife blow from the crazed attacker. The attacker delivers a death blow to Luke's mid-section. The steely knife bounces off Luke's chest. The attacker and his knife hit a spiritual brick wall and bounces off Luke. The attacker staggers around a bit. Luke drop kicks the dazed attacker and the exhausted man fell to the ground. The attacker is laying face-down in the grass. Luke pounces on top of the attacker. Luke's weight pins the attacker to the ground. Luke quickly flips over the attacker and pins the man's body and hands to the ground. The attacker screams in pain. Luke shoves the attacker's head in the dew-covered grass. The campus security guards heard the screams from the young woman and arrive on the scene. Luke is sitting on top of the crazed attacker. The attacker is struggling to free himself from Luke. The young woman has been watching the fight from behind a tree and steps forward. The woman says, "The man wearing the blue shirt and blue jeans tried to attack me. The guy in the green and black ferry suit rescued me." Luke rolls his eyes in disgust over the young woman's comment. Luke says to the security guards, "Handcuff this wild man! He's a killer." The security guards rush towards Luke, while Luke sits on top of the attacker. The security guards handcuff the attacker. The attacker struggles wildly and attempts to free himself from the security guards. The young woman says to the security guards, "That attacker tried to rape me. He tried to stab this guy with a knife. The knife bounced off the guy's chest." The Cedar Rapids Police arrive on scene. The peaceful night is interrupted by flashing lights and sirens blaring. The red and blue lights pierce and flicker over the campus buildings grounds. A police officer questions Luke and Tiffany and released them from the scene. Luke and Tiffany watch as the officer's put the attacker in the squad car. The squad car pulls away from Luke and Tiffany. The College security officers leave the scene.

Tiffany says to Luke, "Will you walk me to my dorm?" Luke says, "I will escort you to your dorm, but I have one request." Tiffany's intellect is peaked, and she says, "What is the request?" Luke says, "You may ask me any question and I will answer your question." Luke escorts Tiffany to her dorm. Tiffany says, "What are you? I've never seen anything like you." Luke hesitantly says, "I was a man of flesh and bone until hours ago. God has changed me. I'm half angel and man." Tiffany looks at Luke in an odd manner. Luke sees Tiffany's odd look and says, "Do you believe in God?" Tiffany sighs and says, "I kind of believe in God, but since I have been attending college, some of my atheist professors have convinced me otherwise." Luke shakes his head in disgust and says, "I will show you that God exists. Are you willing to take hold on my hand?" Luke held out his hand and Tiffany hesitantly put her hand in Luke's hand. Luke and Tiffany lift-up in the air. Tiffany is startled by weightlessness and she instantly let go of Luke's hand and she floated back to the sidewalk. Tiffany is astonished and says, "This can't be happening?" Luke grabs ahold of Tiffany's hand and jets up in the sky. Tiffany screams out-loud and within a split-second, Luke and Tiffany land on the steps of the Church. Tiffany slaps Luke on the shoulder in anger and says, "You freaked me out, stop it!" Luke looks at Tiffany and says, "Are you ready to believe in God and Jesus, again?" Luke takes Tiffany's hand, and they lift off the ground a few inches and they float in the sanctuary. The doors open mysteriously, as if angels opened the doors. Pastor Paul, Allen, Sandy, Wendy, Rocky, Pebbles, Tiny, and Chuck watch in amazement as Luke and Tiffany float to the wooden cross. Tiffany knelt at the foot of the wooden cross. Luke prays in the heavenly language. The Church people listen to the Luke's heavenly prayer. Luke's voice sounds like soft flowing waters from a brook. Tiffany stands up and takes hold of the cross and tightly hugs the cross of Christ. Every Church person listens and observes Tiffany weeping. Luke is praying and suddenly vanishes from Tiffany's side. Pebbles felt her motherly instincts kick in and she walks to the cross. Tiffany is holding unto the cross. Peebles says to Tiffany, "What's your name?" Tiffany opens her tear filled eyes and says, "Tiffany." Peebles says, "Do you mind if I hug you?" Tiffany nods "Yes" and Tiffany bursts out crying. Peebles and Tiffany hug each other. Tiffany says, "I miss my Mom so much." Tiffany is emotionally reeling from the violent attack on campus and her amazing transport to Church. In the blink of an eye salvation comes.

Chapter 13

Luke is lifting off in the darkened night air when his tablet opens, and two names appear. Luke whispers, "Woody and Violet." Woody and Violet's marriage is on the rocks. Woody is in an adulteress relationship with another woman. Violet knows that Woody is out with his girlfriend. The final confrontation between the couple is about to transpire. Woody attempts to quietly sneak in the front door of his home. Violet is waiting in the darkened living room and ready to confront her cheating husband. This could be Violet's last cry for help. A soft click of the front door and Woody attempts to sneak in the house and sneak up-stairs. A lamp light clicks on. Instantly, Woody is startled by the light and slightly jumps like a frightened cat. Violet is sitting on the couch with her arms and legs crossed and glaring at Woody. Woody has been caught in adultery. Violet says in anger, "What are you doing?" Woody attempts to cover his adulteress tracks and smiles at Violet and says, "You startled me sweetie, what's going on?" Violet defiantly says in a stern voice of insincerity, "Woody, cut the bull-crap! I know what you have been up to, you rotten creep." Woody looks guilty and says, "What are you talking about?" Violet advances towards Woody and says, "What's her name?" Woody attempts to cover his infidelity and says, "Babe, you're the only one," as he smiles and winks at Violet. Violet softens her defensive stance just a little bit. Violet does not want to believe Woody is cheating on her. Woody moves towards Violet and is going to hug her when his cell phone tumbles out of his coat pocket. The cell phone hit the carpet and rings. Violet quickly bent over and grabs Woody's cell phone and the name "Brenda" popped up on the display screen. Woody knows he has been caught in adultery and back pedals away from Violet. Violet's eyes grow visually angry and a sense of hurt and rage fill her spirit. Violet faints. Violet gains consciousness and says, "Brenda, Huh?" The cell phone rings. Woody attempts to pull the cell phone from Violet's hand, but Violet taps the answer button and says, "Hello Brenda, Woody can't come to the phone right now. He's discussing an important issue with his wife." Woody is violently angry. Woody's religious façade has come unglued and his wife and girlfriend know about each other. Violet chucks the cell phone at Woody and says, "It's over, jerk!" Woody grabs violet by the arm and says, "Yeah, it's over, alright! If you leave me, I'll destroy you!" Violet felt Woody's strong grip on her wrist and arm tighten. Woody squeezes Violet's bicep and her arm muscles pulsate, and her blood pressure increases. Violet slaps the face of Woody and says, "Don't you touch me! I will call the Police!" Woody's demonic spirit rises and grabs Violet by the shoulders and says, "I have had enough of you! I'm going to take care of you!" Violet attempts to resist the strength of Woody as she struggles to free herself from Woody. Violet bends and twists her shoulders to free herself, but she cannot get free. Violet kneed Woody in the groin. Woody is infuriated and in pain. Woody releases his strong grip on Violet's shoulders and grabs her by the neck and chokes Violet and pins her against the wall. Violet in surprised shock and cannot believe what is taking place. The man she loves is now trying to choke her. Violet attempts to take a breath but cannot inhale or exhale. Violet panics as she felt Woody's death grip on her neck tighten. Panic set in Violet and her heart beats rapidly, while her fingernails dig into Woody's wrists. Violet is futile in releasing Woody's death grip on her neck. Violet's fingernails pierce Woody's skin and angers him more and more. Woody tightens his death grip on Violet's neck. After a few minutes of wildly struggling, Violet lost consciousness and her vision is blurry. Violet whispers in her mind, "Help me Jesus!" The breath of life is taken from Violet by the man who vowed to love and cherish her. Woody's says in an evil voice, "Until death do us part!" Violet is motionless.

Woody releases his choke hold on Violet's neck and watched her lifeless body drop to the floor. Violet's body sounded like luggage crashing on the floor. Woody has no remorse in the death of his lovely wife. Woody looks at his hands of adultery and murder. Woody walks in the kitchen and washed his hands and arms as he thought about calling Brenda. Woody says with an evil smile, "I finally, I got rid of her." Woody continues washing his hands when he heard a huge "Bang" rattle his home. Woody is fearful and hustles into the living room and observes Luke kneeling over the lifeless body of Violet. Luke surveys the tragic end of Violet. Luke put his right hand over Violet's eyes and softly lowers her eye lids and whispers, "Murder." In Godly rage, Luke stands to his feet and pulls his sword from the sheath and glares at Woody. Luke says, "You coward, you killed your beautiful wife. You are a murderer." In cowardly fear, Woody backs away from Luke. Luke advances towards Woody and pins him against the wall. Luke grips Woody's neck and squeezes tight. Luke is choking Woody. Luke commandingly says, "How does it feel to not breathe? You are a man baby, aren't you?" Woody cannot breathe and grabs Luke's wrist. Luke says, "Why don't you pick on someone your own size, like me!" Luke slams his sword in the wooden floor and says, "You get the first punch, you are a sicko and pathetic." Woody is being stupid and thought he could kill Luke and conceal his adultery and murder. Woody attempts to punch Luke in the face, but Luke's rock-hard jaw does not flinch. Woody broke his hand on Luke's face and listens to the bones crunch. Woody quickly grabs Luke's sword and points the sword at Luke. What Luke has underestimated the volatile situation and the fallen angel of adultery rise-up in Woody's spirit. Julian is the fallen angel of adultery. Luke thought of calling for Macom, but he knew he must fight this battle himself. Luke whispers in spirit, "Help me Jesus!" Luke reaches over his shoulder and grabs his war club. Luke's eyes turn brilliantly white and his voice trickles with the sound of many waters and he says, "Julian, I rebuke you, in the name of Jesus!" The Julian smiles a wicked smile and grunts at Luke and says, "Tonight, you die!" Luke says nothing and supernaturally kicks Woody away. Woody tumbles backwards and fell to the floor. Luke assumes the battle stance and points left hand in front of his body and swings the war club forward and tilts his neck and head a bit forward. Luke snaps a quick swing at Julian and bent his knees a bit. The Julian points his sword at Luke and pulls another blackened sword from the sheath. Julian says in an evil voice, "Two swords against one club. Hmmm, looks like you lose!" Both warriors, pace to the left in a circle and dance a circle of death. Angel and fallen angel calculate the strike and Julian attacks first. Julian attempts to slice Luke's War Club in half, but the swords bounce off the war club. The Julian hovers in the air and Luke follows suit and hovers as the death dance continues. The two souls circle around the dead body of Violet. The Julian gloats over his trophy lying on the floor. Something sparks hard within Luke's gut and his spirit bolts like lightening towards Julian and whips his war club at the fallen angel. Julian takes his eyes off Luke for a millisecond and Luke grabs his dagger and thrusts dagger into the right leg of Woody and Julian. Both the Julian and Woody scream in agonizing pain as the dagger penetrates the femur of Woody. The Julian instantly shrieks and quickly exits Woody's body. Woody's body drops limp and crashes on the floor. Woody is conscious and screams in pain. Luke is standing over Woody and looking down at Woody. Luke reached down and yanks the dagger from Woody's leg and more pain shoots through the adulteress male animal. Woody screams in agonizing pain as blood pumps out of the wound and in unison with his wicked heartbeat. Woody is awakened to his senses and looks around and sees his wife lying on the floor and says in fear, "I killed her, didn't I?" Luke is sad and fearful in his spirit. Luke has a hard time containing his emotions and says, "You murdered your wife in an adulteress rage. If I were you, I would repent from your wicked actions. You are going to Hell! This could be your last night on this earth. Only God knows what he will happen to your soul." Luke knelt and gently wiggles his hands and arms under Violet's lifeless body and picks her up in his arms. Luke stares at Woody with a glaring disgust and says, "You forced Jesus to take your beautiful bride away from you. All because of adultery, you are truly pathetic." Luke lifts a bit higher in the air and hovers and weeps over Violet's lifeless body. Luke's tears fell unto Violet's strangled neck and Violet's lips move. Violet's eyes and she inhales a huge breath of air. The spirit of God enters Violet. Woody backs away from Luke and Violet. Violet gasps for more air and screams in fear and grabs Luke. Luke held Violet tight as she looks at Woody in blood curdling horror. God brought Violet back to life because He is sick adultery and murder. God stood up for Violet in the last hours of grace. Woody looks down at the floor in sadness and great remorse. Woody began to grasp the magnitude of his evil sin and guilt grips his wicked soul and questioning desperation. Violet looks at Woody and says, "Why?" Violet cries like a hurting child in the arms of Luke, while she tightens her body in the fetal position. Violet says to Luke, "Woody killed me, didn't he?" Luke stoically nods, "Yes." Violet weeps profusely on Luke's shoulder, while the magnitude of truth penetrates her soul. Violet murmurs, "My husband murdered me." Woody attempts to raise his hand and touch Violet, but she flinches and says, "Get away from me!" Woody feels Violet's strong rejection. Luke says to Woody, "Violet will come with me and you will never see her again!" Luke floats out the front door. Luke and Violet hover on the front lawn of Woody and Violet's home. Luke and Violet float up in the darkened sky and vanish. Woody fell to his knees and weeps bitterly and covers his murderous hands over his face. After a short time of sadness, Woody stood to his feet and walks toward his car. Woody drove the streets of Cedar Rapids and thought about what he had done to Violet. Woody is guilt-ridden. How could God forgive Woody for killing his beautiful wife?

Luke tenderly transports Violet to Church, where he lands on the steps. Violet looks at Luke and says, "Am I in Heaven?" Luke says, "No, not yet." Luke held Violet in his arms as he walks in the sanctuary. Luke instructs the ladies to pray for Violet, while he set Violet on the front pew. Violet is weak from the trauma, death, and resurrection. The Church ladies hustle over and pray for Violet. Wendy is walking towards Violet when Luke pulls Wendy aside and whispers, "Be kind, loving, and understanding to Violet! Violet's husband killed her tonight and Jesus raised her from the dead." Luke whispers to Wendy, "Don't tell anyone else what happened to Violet!" Wendy looks in Luke's sincere eyes and whispers, "You can count on me," and she winks at Luke. Luke felt uneasy about the Wendy's wink. A supernatural manifestation appears, and Luke's spirit and body energizes. Luke's ring fingers tingle and an electrical blue haze swirls around his hands. Futuristic weapons materialize and cover Luke's hands. Luke says to Wendy, "God has repaid me for my great loss, I must continue the mission!" Wendy is speechless and says to Luke, "I feel your pain."

Chapter 14

Luke exits the Church and bolts up in the cool night air. Luke opens the tablet and whispers, "Vern and Mary, they are saved, why?" The Holy spirit whispers, "Mary needs encouragement!" Luke instantly materializes at Vern's grave and honors his mentor. Luke softly steps onto the dew-covered grass and looks at the Vern's headstone. Luke remembers Vern's strong committed and example of Christ. Luke is reminded of the first time he heard Pastor Vern speak. Luke was drawn to God because of Vern's commitment to Jesus. When Vern preached, he would raise on his tiptoes and lift his right finger in the air and preach with passion. Vern loved Jesus and people. Pastor Vern passionately pleaded with young people to accept Jesus as savior. Vern and Mary were always so kind and patient with the youth of the Church. Vern was the reason Luke continued in the faith of Christ. Luke whispers at Vern's grave, "My old friend." Macom appears by Luke's side and says, "Vern will soon rise. Go and awake Mary and take her to Church!" Luke says, "Why not let Vern rise now?" Macom says, "The dead shall rise in Christ first and those who are alive in Christ will be caught in the air to meet Him. God wants to encourage Mary in these last hours before His return. God loves the widow very much. Go get Mary!" Luke is transported to Mary's home. Luke walks to the front door of Mary's home when he notices a red rose bush in full bloom. Luke pulls his sword from his sheath and cuts the rose from the bush. Mary is like an adopted mom to Luke. Mary trusts Luke without question. Mary is awakened by the ringing doorbell. Mary hesitantly exits her bed and hustles to the front door and turned on the porch light. Mary observes Luke standing at door. Mary opens the door and graciously says, "Luke, good to see you, please come in! It's so late, why are you here?" Luke smiles and kindly says, "This rose is for you. Vern wants you to have it." Luke hugs Mary. Tears well up in Mary's eyes and she says, "Thank you, Luke." Luke says, "Please get dressed! You must come with me and attend Church. You must play the piano for God and Jesus. You must help one of my new friends!" Mary walks in her bedroom and dressed in her church cloths and freshens up. Mary appears with a smile and she says, "Let's go!" Mary walks with Luke out the front door and walked down the sidewalk. Mary is expecting to see Luke's car in the driveway, but there is no car in the driveway. Mary says, "Where is your car?" Luke smiles and says, "Hold my hand tight, it's time for transport!" Mary grips Luke's hand tightly. The two souls gently lift in the air. Mary is frightened and says, "Luke, I'm afraid." Luke comforts Mary as they shot across this present darkness and towards Cedar Rapids. Mary shut her eyes in fear and whispers in prayer, "Lord, help me Jesus!"

Luke and Mary arrive at the Cedar Rapids Church and touch down on the cement steps. God's final revival is taking place, for the young and old. Mary says, "I remember this church." The last time we attended, was when you were married. That is so many years ago. Vern was in Luke's wedding. Vern was so excited to be in Luke's wedding. Mary's memories flood back in her mind as she remembers seeing Vern standing next to Luke. Mary is reminded of her wedding to Vern and became emotional. Mary missed Vern and loves him passionately. Vern had passed-away many years ago. Tears trickle down Mary's cheeks. Mary held the rose in her hand and sniffs the lovely aroma. Mary is gently poked by a thorn on the stem and she is reminded of sweet love and the sad separation of death. Luke says, "You miss Vern, don't you?" Mary says, "I miss Jesus and Vern." Luke softly says, "What is your favorite hymnal?" Mary looks at Luke and walks in the sanctuary and knelt by the piano and prays a prayer of thanks to God. Mary rose and sat on the piano bench and says, "For the honor and glory to God and Jesus," as she plays and sings "Because He Lives" by Bill and Gloria Gaither. The Church group listens to Mary play the piano and sing. Mary stoically concludes the song and closed her eyes for a moment and whispers under her breath, "Vern, I miss you so much." The Holy Spirit put a thought in Mary's mind, "Play Vern's favorite song!" Mary thought for a moment and built up her courage to play Vern's favorite Hymnal song, "Until Then" by Ray Price. It is hard for Mary to sing the song. She chokes up a few times in sadness, while singing the song, as the piano playing, resuscitated her voice. Mary pretends to sing beside Vern. Mary caught a glimpse of Vern's image and her past came to life in a vision. At the end of the song, Mary's heart is breaking, and she misses Vern. Mary's tears tumble unto the black and white keys of the piano. Luke whispers to Mary from a far, "The Lord is returning, and you will see Jesus and Vern." Mary smiles and whispers, "I miss Vern so much." Wendy says to Mary, "You really crank on that piano," in admiration and respect. Mary says, "Thank you, but you should have heard Vern crank on a piano, it was a sight to hear and see." Mary smiles at Wendy.

Chapter 15

Luke turns and slowly walks out of the Church and opens the tablet, while he leans on the church door. Luke observes the name of Shawna and Kirk Everheart appear. Luke is taken in the spirit to Shawna's apartment, where he observes Shawna helping her handicap son Kirk. Kirk must use the bathroom. Kirk is severely handicap and needs Shawna's help to pee. Kirk attempts to pull down his pants and lowers himself unto the toilet seat and urinate, but Shawna must help Kirk with the simplest of duties. Shawna steps out of the bathroom to give Kirk some privacy. Shawna says, "When you are done, let me know. I will come and help you to bed." Kirk says in humility, "Thanks, mom." Kirk is getting big and it is hard for Shawna to move Kirk around the apartment. Shawna shuts the bathroom door and cries out to God for help. Shawna knelt on the floor and put her hands together in prayer. Shawna softly whispers, "Please Lord, I need your help! I can't lift Kirk any more he is too big." Supernaturally, Luke appears in front of Shawna and is full of angelic radiance. Shawna opens her eyes because she felt warm light her skin. An angel is standing before Shawna. Luke looks at Shawna and held out his hand and says, "I am here to help you and your son!" Shawna is speechless. Kirk says, "I'm ready." Luke opens the bathroom door and says to Shawna, "Do you believe God will heal Kirk?" Shawna is desperate and lowers her eyes in despair and cries. Shawna put her hand over her mouth and thought of the many years of sorrow, sadness, while hoping and praying for a miracle. Shawna says, "I prayed this prayer ever since I saw Kirk as an infant." Luke enters the bathroom. Kirk looks at Luke and held out his hand. Kirk wants his miracle more than ever and says to Luke, "Don't touch me yet! I want mom by my side when God heals me!" Shawna squeezes by Luke and lifts Kirk to his feet and held Kirk by her side. Kirk's body shakes uncontrollably. Kirk held out his wavering hand and waits for Luke to touch him. Luke is going to say something when his mouth is shut. A brilliant light from God is released and a healing wave of brilliant light surrounds Kirk. Kirk is instantly healed. Kirk's twisted and frail frame is straightened. For the first time, Kirk stood straight up and stopped shaking. God's healing strength has miraculously healed Kirk's body and repaired his flawed frame. Kirk smiles big and his face glows with a heavenly radiance. Kirk's transformation is complete, and he hugs his mom super hard and lifts her off her feet. Tears of joy well up in Shawna's eyes and she felt faint and in total disbelief. Luke is humbled to see God at work without using him. Luke says, "God and Jesus, you are so awesome, I am humbled and amazed." Shawna looks at Luke and asks him a question, "Who are you?" Luke smiles and says, "Does not matter who I am. Give God all the praise! Please take Kirk to Church and give God and Jesus all the honor, glory, and praise. There is a Church open tonight." Luke wrote down the address to the Church on a piece of paper and handed the paper to Shawna. Luke dematerializes from the sight of Shawna and Kirk.

Shawna and Kirk dress quickly and prepare to drive to Church, when a knock at their apartment door startles the happy mother and healed son. Shawna looks at Kirk and shrugs her shoulders and walks to the door and says, "Who is there?" The voice says, "It's Michael." The voice startles Shawna to her inner core and she froze in time and space. Shawna gasps and says, "No!" Kirk looks at Shawna and says, "Who is it?" Shawna froze wanting to tell the man to go away, but she cannot, and hesitantly opens the door a bit and says, "Michael, what do you want?" Silence echoes the apartment and hallway, until the voice says, "I'm a fool for leaving you and Kirk." Shawna is emotionally stressed and walks away from the door and hustles to her bedroom and plops on her bed and weeps bitterly. The door opens a little more and Kirk walks to the door and observes a man standing before him. Kirk says to the man, "Who are you?" The man looks at Kirk in shock and disbelief. Kirk is standing perfectly straight up and not shaking or wavering. Michael says, "Kirk, I'm your father." Kirk is confused and says, "My father is dead, that is what mom said." Michael regretfully says, "When you were born, I could not face the fact that you were a special needs child. I was the biggest fool in the world and left you and your mother." Shawna is listening to the conversation between Kirk and Michael. Shawna immediately jumps up and is going to defiantly yell at Michael, but she observes Kirk and Michael looking at each other and she quickly bit her tongue. Shawna leaned up against door frame of her bedroom and looked at Michael and Kirk. Kirk resembles his father, and Shawna's fury subsides momentarily. God inserts this thought in Shawna's calloused broken heart, "Maybe there is two miracles here tonight." Shawna wipes the tears from her eyes and musters the strength to say in a snappy tone of voice, "Why did you come here?" Michael looked at Shawna and submissively whispers in a broken spirit, "Forgive me!" Shawna Everheart's eyes look pierced and angry. Michael is desperate for Shawna's forgiveness. Shawna says, "I didn't hear you, what did you mumble?" Michael says, "All I could think about was you and Kirk for the last fourteen years. I am sick and tired of my selfish actions." Shawna says nothing to Michael's reply. Shawna is furious and feeling an abundance of anger towards Michael. Michael reached in his pant pocket and pulled out his wedding ring and says, "I never remarried. I faced the fact that I still love you. I've missed you and Kirk for fourteen years." Shawna wants to tell Michael off, but she cannot. Shawna senses Michael's sincerity. Kirk says to Michael, "Will you take mom and me to Church?" Michael laughs and looks at Kirk and says, "There's no Church open this late." Kirk says, "God sent an angel, and I am healed. We must go to Church and praise God and Jesus." Shawna angrily says, "Michael, if you are serious and man enough, take us to church!" Michael says, "Okay, I will take you and Kirk to Church." The apartment door closed and clicked and locked out the sadness from the Everheart's.

The Everheart's pull in the parking lot of the Church and observe the lights on and doors and windows open. Michael looks at Shawna and says, "This is unusual, Church is never open this late." Three car doors shut in unison. Michael, Shawna, and Kirk walk in the Church. Michael stops Shawna and looks at her, then pulls out his wedding ring and placed the ring on his finger.

Michael says, "I never stopped loving you." Shawna does not know what to say and remains silent but angrily punched Michael's shoulder. Shawna never stopped loving Michael, from the day he walked out on her and Kirk. Shawna envisions the day when she held Kirk in her arms and mother and son cried. Will love overcome Shawn's desertion by Michael? Shawna punched Michael in the shoulder again and says, "You deserter, Michael Everheart." Kirk says, "Mom, let it go!" Shawna is forced to decide and hesitantly says, "I will give you another chance, Michael, but you better not mess this up!" Love and forgiveness overcame all things for the Everhearts. Michael, Shawna, and Kirk Everheart are proof that second chances really do happen.

For the first time ever, Kirk walks in church completely whole and healed. Kirk is overjoyed by God's amazing healing. Kirk walks to the front of the sanctuary and knelt on his knees. Kirk praises God and Jesus profusely. Every soul in the church felt the presence of God enter the church when Kirk prays a thanked Jesus. Shawna is relieved from continually assisting Kirk. Kirk says, "Mom, where's the bathroom? I have to pee." Shawna felt a spirit of relief enter her body and she says, "Do you need help?" Kirk says, "No." Shawna smiles at Kirk and says, "I am sure the restroom is in the lobby, go and find the restroom!" God released Shawna's burden of fourteen years. Michael cannot live with the guilt of the many hardships he has caused Shawna and Kirk. Michael turns and walked out of the sanctuary. Shawna turns around and says, "Michael, are you going to leave again?" Michael turns and looks at Shawna and says, "I can't believe I deserted you and Kirk. I do not expect you to ever forgive me. I am sorry." Shawna cannot restrain herself anymore and she ran to Michael and flings her arms around him tightly and hugs him and says, "I forgive you! That's what an Everheart does." Shawna and Michael weep bitterly while holding one another. Michael and Shawna's love rekindles, and love has come full circle.

Chapter 16

Luke is gazing at the stars sprinkled in the heavens and observes a pulsating star light flickering off his angelic uniform. The star light enters Luke's soul. Luke whispers, "Twinkle, twinkle, twinkle little star." Luke envisions in his mind of what the sky will look like when Jesus returns. Jesus will return hours from now. Luke whispers, "I'm the luckiest guy on earth." Luke opens his tablet and whispers the name, "Sam." Luke materializes in downtown alley in Cedar Rapids. Luke observes Sam resting on a piece of cardboard. Sam is huddled up against a wall and trying to stave off the coldness of the night. The cool night temperature penetrates Sam's skinny body. The cold cement and brick suck the warmth from Sam. Luke arrives in a gentle breeze that tumbles through the alley and softly flows over Sam's long hair and un-kept beard. Sam wiggles to the annoyance from the cold breeze. Luke observes the peddle bike leaning against the wall. Luke often watched Sam ride his bike up and down 1st avenue. Sam is always carrying plastic bags filled with aluminum cans. Sam collects cans to scrounge up enough money to pay for food and water. Luke whispers, "Sam, I am sorry for being such an uncaring and out of touch Christian. I did not help you when I should have." Luke has another chance to help Sam and he says, "Sam." Sam jolts a bit and shifts his body. Sam felt gust of wind tickle over his body. Luke's green and black scout uniform transforms to a white brilliance and lifts off the pavement. Luke repeats his greeting to Sam and says, "Sam, wake up and look at me!" Sam opens his left eye and looks at the ground and observes a bright light in the ally. Sam observes Luke hovering in the air. Sam continues looking at the angel and pretends to be dead. Luke unfurls his wings and gently flaps the wings in front of Sam. Sam is fearful and sat up and pushed himself against the cold brick wall. Sam's body is shaking. Luke says, "The poor shall attain salvation, come with me and experience the joy of your salvation. Your test is over." Sam stood to his feet and mysteriously lifts off the cold ally pavement and floats to Luke. Sam observes Luke. Luke is shaken to his spiritual core and is filled with remorse. Sam is an angel in disguise. Sam unfurls his massive angelic wings that dwarf Luke's wings. Sam is the testing angel over Cedar Rapids. Luke is going to speak when Sam raises his right hand and put his index finger over his lips and softly whispers, "Shhhhh!" Sam and Luke's angelic bodies dim immediately. Sam pulls Luke to the pavement and leaned up against the wall and pretended to sleep. Luke felt a powerful wickedness permeate the dark night while the two angels lay motionless. The darkness passed by the alley. Sam stands and says, "Wait 30 seconds and the shoot up in the air and return to church and continue your mission." Sam clinched his fists tightly in heavenly defiance and tensed his spiritual body. Sam prepared for another battle with darkness. Sam unfurled his massive wings while he boldly walked out of the ally. Sam's huge wings drag on the pavement behind him as he anticipates another fight with a fallen angel. Sam stepped out of the ally and is yanked in the air and instantly slammed to the street. A black ominous cloud of darkness surrounds Sam. Luke blasts straight up in the air and flew to church while listening to the battle cries between Sam and a fallen angel.

The fallen angel screeched, and Sam screamed in spiritual battle, while the noise of violent combat rang out in downtown Cedar Rapids.

Sam was not able to explain to Luke that he is a testing angel. God sends testing angels all around the world. These angels continually test Christians who profess Jesus Christ as Lord and savior. Have you entertained an angel unknowingly? Jesus said, "If only you would have given them a cold cup of water, or feed them, or clothed them, or took them in, but you did not." Unfortunately, Jesus will be forced to say these damning words to many people on Judgement day. God will separate the sheep from the goats. Do not be a goat! I hope and pray that I am not a goat. Please work in your community and do good things to help the poor and needy and know Jesus! Never stop helping people until Jesus returns. Your spiritual life depends on helping other people. Inaction is the ultimate killer of your Christian soul.

Chapter 17

Luke rematerializes outside a strip club in Cedar Rapids. The tablet materialized and Luke whispers, "Jody." Luke does not like this next challenge and has a bad feeling about the strip club. Luke's scout uniform morphs to a white polo shirt, blue jeans, and tennis shoes. Luke hesitantly walks toward the door of the club. Just then, Macom appears and hinders Luke from entering the club. Macom says, "Walk to the little red car in the parking lot and wait for Jody!" Luke sighs with relief and says, "Thanks." Macom warns Luke by saying, "This is a stronghold of Lucifer, be on your guard and be ready for anything! I have a bad feeling." Macom senses his old friend and enemy is present. The head bouncer and two other bouncers follow Luke to the parking lot. The head bouncer says to Luke, "What are you doing here?" Luke does not respond to the bouncer's question. Luke walks a little bit further and turns around to see three big men looking at him. Luke's spiritual senses tingle and he feels a wickedness attempt to overtake him. Luke remembers his first confrontation with Julian. Luke walks toward the head bouncer and he smacks the bouncer in the face. The head bouncer is instantly knocked unconscious and fell to the pavement. The two other bouncers unveil their identity, and their fallen angelic bodies materialize for Luke to see. The two fallen angels lift in the air and hover. Luke has no fear as he lifts off the ground and his green and black armor materialize. Luke's eyes beam a brilliant light from heaven. One fallen angel says, "What do we have here, are you a wannabe angel?" Luke pulls and points his sword at the fallen angel. Silence surrounds the parking lot. Luke says nothing to the fallen angels. The fallen angels glare at Luke. The fallen angels attempt to startle Luke and taunt him. The fallen angels shout verbal comments and blasphemy against God, Jesus, and the angels of heaven. Luke pulls his war club from the sling and points the war club in the air. The war club glows with God's glory in the tip of the club. The fallen angels step back in fear and have not encountered a scout in a long time. Fallen angels lift in the air and flee and say nothing to Luke.

Just then, Jody walks out the back entrance of the club and hustles towards her car. Luke shouts across the parking lot, "Jody, wait, I want to talk to you!" Luke is walking towards Jody when he is blindsided by two fallen angels. Luke is hurtled up against a black limo. Jody screams in fear as she has never seen a supernatural manifestation of angels and fallen angels. Jody hid behind her car and hesitantly peeks over the hood and observes five fallen angels surround Luke. Luke is recovering from the blindsided attack. Luke picks up the limo and whips the limo towards the fallen angels. Two fallen angels grab hold of the limo and rip the car in half and toss the limo in a cornfield. Three fallen angels overseeing the attack begin to laugh at Luke. Luke's demise is coming in seconds. The five fallen angels pull out their steely swords and prepare to kill Luke. A blinding light smashes the parking lot as Macom materializes on the battle scene. Macom hurriedly covers Luke's back and screams, "Cover me and I will cover you! Back-to-back and rotate!” The two scouts push back-to-back and hover above the pavement. Macom and Luke slowly rotate in the air, then, speed up the rotation. The angelic fluctuating and rotation by Macom and Luke caused the fallen angels to be confused. It is hard to attack a moving object that continually fluctuates speed. The confrontation with the fallen angels begun. One fallen angel floated away from the battle and commands the four fallen angels to attack. The four fallen angels surround Macom and Luke and prepare to fight. The four fallen angels advance simultaneously and brazenly attempt to pierce the armor of Macom and Luke. The swords of the fallen bounce off Macom and Luke, while the scouts rotate and sling their swords in a fury of blinding light. Macom and Luke both grab the swords of the four angels in blinding light speed and shred fallen swords in thousands of metal shavings. The fallen angels flee in fear of Macom and Luke. Macom stops rotating and shouts, “Step forward, old friend and enemy! Or I will hunt the four fallen and destroy them! I have been given authority, by the living God!” The commander of the fallen angels materializes from his cloaked darkness and says with a snarling and raspy voice, “Well old friend and enemy it has been a long time. What brings you to earth?” Macom steps forward and points his shining sword at his fallen friend. Macom says, “Ashlon, present your sword against mine, tip to tip! The holy against the unholy, for you are under God’s judgement!” Ashlon steps forward and presents his sword against the tip of Macom’s sword. The duel is set for these two commanders, one soul is pure and holy, and one soul is unholy darkness. Macom’s eyes become brilliant white and Ashlon’s eyes become dark as both commanders lift higher above the ground. Macom’s scout uniform morphs in color and transforms to a brilliant blue and white. Macom set his body in battle stance. Ashlon lifts higher above the ground and his uniform remains dull and ominously jet black in color. Ashlon set his body in battle stance. Ashlon says, “Are you sure you want to fight?” Macom says nothing in response as he lifts his sword high in the air and slashes the sword straight down and to the right and signified the supremacy of Christ. Ashlon assumes a semi hunched stance and is a smaller target for Macom. Both commanders grip their swords tightly as the four fallen angels and Luke rise in the air and observe the spiritual fight. Macom blurts out a terrifying war cry and a shockwave vibrates the heavens and earth. Three scouts materialize by Macom’s side. The three scouts and Luke fall in formation behind Macom. Four fallen angels position themselves behind Ashlon. Each group point their swords towards their enemy. Macom moves slightly forward with blinding speed strikes Ashlon. Ashlon hurtles himself over Macom and attempts to deliver a death blow on Macom’s backside. Macom disappears and immediately reappears behind Ashlon. The battle between Macom and Ashlon continues to unfold. The four scouts and four fallen angels lift higher in the air and attack one another. The fierce fight is like heavens’ cool waters colliding with hells’ boiling water. Spiritual and physical shockwaves from the battle is observed and felt by many people earth. The five scouts and fallen angels bounce, tumble, and roll all over the darkened skyline. The spiritual battle looks like bright balls of light bouncing off black holes as the fight rages on. The spiritual smashing, slashing, kicking, punching, dodging, rolling, jabbing, stabbing, and biting heat up the night sky. The battle looks like heat lightning spatter across the horizon. The spiritual battle is brutally savage.

Chapter 18

Star gazers see erratic flying light in the sky and call the local authority's and report multiple UFO sightings. NASA satellites pick up the atmospheric disturbance above Cedar Rapids. Air Force radar and satellite observe the strange atmospheric disturbance and scramble two jet fighters to observe, investigate, and report to air command. The jet fighters arrive on the spiritual battle scene and the pilots observe five balls of light smashing against five black holes of darkness. The pilots report their unusual observations to air command. The bright lights zip, zig, and zag over the sky in erratic patterns and smash into the black holes as light and darkness bounce off one another. The pilots maneuver their jets closer to one of the balls of light. The pilot observes the ball of light changed direction instantly. The erratic flight patterns of the balls of light make it impossible for the pilots to observe at close range. Air command orders the pilots to break off the engagement and observe at a safe distance. The pilots maneuver their aircraft to an elevation of 30,000 feet and maintain a level flight pattern and observe the erratic lights and black holes bounce around the sky.

Luke is suddenly hurtled across the sky by one of the fallen angels. Luke tumbles towards a jet fighter. Luke attempts to avoid contact with the jet, but he is unable to avoid a midair collision. Luke's impact with the jet is so powerful that the nose of the aircraft is severely bent. The jet immediately lost aerodynamic integrity and wildly spins uncontrollably. The jet fighter tumbles end over end and towards the ground. The pilot of the damaged jet is dazed and confused. The pilot observes the strobe lights flashing on the airfield of the Cedar Rapids airport and attempts to steer his stricken jet toward the light. The pilot cannot eject from the doomed jet. The pilot is disorientated and passed out. The jet is plummeting towards earth. Macom yells across the sky, "Save the pilot!" Luke immediately bolts towards the tumbling jet. Luke smashes onto the right wing of the jet and digs his fingers into the aluminum skin. Luke maneuvers his body along the wing and over to the canopy of the aircraft. Luke punched a hole in the canopy but observes his uniform transform from brilliant white and blue and turn green and black. Luke grabs for his sword and pulls up on the cockpit of the aircraft. Luke severs the cockpit from rest of the doomed aircraft, just as the jet slams to the ground. A spectacular explosion and fireball arose from the crashed jet. Luke feels the fiery flash of ignited jet fuel push his body up in the air as he held on to the severed cockpit. Luke's feet experience intense heat through his combat boots warm his toes. Luke lifts the damaged cockpit further in the air and says, "Hell is hot." Luke transports the cockpit across the airfield, which is a few hundred yards away from the crash site. Luke softly put the cockpit by the tarmac and next to the control tower. Luke rips off the canopy. Luke observes the dazed pilot for a split second. Luke pulls the pilot's glove off and observes a small cross tattooed on the pilot's thumb. Luke checks the wrist of the pilot and located a pulse. Luke whispers, "The pilot survived the crash, thanks Jesus." The dazed pilot is startled by Luke whispering and opened his eyes. The pilot lost consciousness, again. Sirens from a fire truck and ambulance come to life. The rescue team is about to arrive on-site, and Luke quietly lifts in the air and avoids detection from the fire and rescue team.

Luke vertically shot up in the night sky. Luke attempts to rejoin the spiritual fight but only found rustling solar winds. The wind rustles along a heavenly quietness and the occasional solar gust that buffets Luke's body. Luke surveys the sky and says, "Macom, where are you? Scouts, are you there?" Luke's tablet shakes and he is reminded of the soul's begging to be revived. Luke must return to Jody and he plummets from the sky and crash lands to the parking lot. The pavement shakes and startles Jody as her car jostles a bit. Jody screams and her body trembles in fear. Jody closed her eyes. Jody never wants to see angels and fallen angels fight again. The raw reality of spiritual warfare and flashbacks in Jody's memory. Jody says, "God, make it go away!" Luke jumps up and says, "These smash landings are so hard," while he brushes off the dust from his shoulders. Luke taps on Jody's car door window. Jody screams and peeks through her fingers and observes an angel. Luke's uniform is brilliant white in color. The serene peace of God enters Jody's spirit, and she hesitantly opened her car door. Jody's eyes spiritually open and she observes the strip club and is convicted of her sin. Jody prays to God for forgiveness. A spiritual ball materializes and envelops Jody. Luke took hold of the spiritual ball. Jody remains in the spiritual ball as Luke transports her to church. Luke and Jody enter the sanctuary. Luke cannot touch Jody's body. The spiritual ball circling Jody dematerialized. Jody prays to God for forgiveness. Jody lay at the foot of the Cross. Every person in the church observes Jody praying. No Church person has seen Luke's angelic radiance before. Allen hustles over to Luke and attempts to touch Luke. Luke says to Allen, "Friend, you cannot touch me! If you touch me, you will die." Allen lowers his hand and says, "Why are you so radiant?" Luke says, "God has changed me. God is cleansing Jody from her sins. When the glory of God fades from Jody, encourage Jody with much kindness. Jody has seen a battle between angels and fallen angels and is not in her right mind. Jody's recovery will take hours." Luke says to Wendy, "Sing childhood choruses until Jody regains her right mind." Wendy says, "I'm not a very good singer." Luke whispers in Wendy's ear, "Ask God to sing like an angel! God will give you the gift." Wendy has always wanted to sing, but never had a strong voice. Wendy chose second best, which is the piano. Wendy tearfully says to Luke, "I have always wanted to sing." Luke says, "Walk to the Cross and touch the Cross and you will receive your desire. You will sing like an angel." Wendy hustles to the Cross and expectantly touched the Cross. A beam of bright light penetrates Wendy's vocal-chords. Wendy is consumed by God's heavenly language and she humbly silent. Wendy bows in humble submission to Jesus, while she receives the gift of song. Wendy's tongue tingles and her throat experiences warmth and her diaphragm is transformed to a rock-hard status. Wendy receives a glimpse of Jesus Christ enter her mind and heart. Jesus fills Wendy's soul with wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. Wendy utters holy sounds of many rushing waters and her voice sounds amazing. Pastor Paul, Allen, Sandy, Dusty, Rocky, Pebbles, Tiffany, Tiny, Chuck, Jody, Violet, Mary, Shawna, Michael, and Kirk all look at Wendy in amazement. Luke speaks to Wendy in the heavenly language. Wendy understood what Luke said and replied to Luke's question. Wendy ran to Luke and hugged him. Luke stood frozen and does not know how to respond to Wendy. Wendy felt Luke's tense body and sweetly says, "Loosen up! You are the only man who is able understand me. Wow!" Luke struggles to reply to Wendy and backs away from Wendy. Wendy steps towards Luke and winks at him. Luke extremely shy, instantly vanishes from sight. Wendy whispers, "Luke, we need to sing together!" Luke has always avoided a romantic relationship since his divorce. Wendy is attracted to Luke but, Luke ran away from Wendy.

Chapter 19

God and Jesus have shown great love and judgement to mankind since the fall of Adam and Eve. Tonight, Father and Son ignite the final revival on earth. Our days of grace have come to an end and God's judgement is almost upon world. God has ordained the last revival. Men and spirit cannot defy God's ordainment of salvation. The greatest revival known to mankind is manifesting across the earth. A calm before the storm is upon the world as God prepares for His invasion of earth. A silent night and spiritual surge of baptizing water and fire flicker to life, just before the return of Jesus. Tonight, millions of angelic scouts, battle for the souls of men, women, and children. Ten million souls saved in the final hours before judgement, seems to be an impossibility, but all things are possible through Jesus. The Bride of Christ is fulfilling her final mission. Unfortunately, half the Churches have have fallen away from their first Love. The five wise virgins trim the lamps and prepare for the return of Christ while the five foolish virgins continue to chase after the delusional and semi dark doctrine men, politics, and distorted religion. The foolish virgins drift off into the Mediterranean Sea and sleepy shores of the Laodicean dreams of delusion. The scouts have been strategically placed over the earth and a healing wave of salvation and redemption is awakening the last souls to salvation. The time is at hand, get ready for the return of Jesus Christ!

The entire Body of Christ must awake in the last day and fulfill the Great Commission, "Go to all the world!" If you have noticed, the scouts illustrate a perfect example of boldness, confidence, and raw spiritual fortitude towards a lost world. The scouts fear nothing on this fallen planet, whether spiritual or physical. My prayer for every believer in Christ Jesus is that you put on your armor and dust off your breastplate of righteousness and prepare for a battle. God's holy kingdom is the only kingdom that will stand the test of time. As an old friend always said, "God Rulzs!" Show a few acts of kindness and love to someone today! Whether the person resides in your household, workplace, community, or Church serve a person a humble piece of kingdom pie. Your act of grace, thoughtfulness, and kindness towards friends and enemy's will be your kingdom living. God's desire for the lost is strong. This book is intended to spark the final revival on earth. Living God, let the "Silent Night" revival begin, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen!

It is time to open every church on earth and proclaim the Good news! The entire world must know and understand that the Bride of Christ is open 24/7. The Bride of Christ must be open day and night until the return of Jesus Christ. Young and old Christians, your final testament for Jesus Christ is upon you. Christian, are you willing to walk, jog, or run the final mile? We must pray, plead, persist, and pursue God for strength to finish the race. The angels in heaven wait for the dancing party to begin. Open your Bibles, reopen the jars of oil, and fill the baptismal with water and get ready for many sleepless nights! We must seek the salvation of Christ. I admonish you to not go to hell but get to heaven! The Lord is waiting for your prayer to be turned into praise and shake the foundations of this old and dying world one last time.

Chapter 20

Not only are there male scouts, but female scouts. On the other side of the world is a female scout and she is working on her final mission. This female scout is short, feisty, and on fire for Jesus. Little Miss Mary is 5' tall and 98 pounds and a woman valor. Little Miss Mary is the smallest scout in the service of God, but that does not stop her from being a fierce fighter. How did little Miss Mary become so fierce? Little Miss Mary grew up with four mean brothers. Little Miss Mary has a lot of experience in fighting, as she grew up fighting with her brothers. Little Miss Mary was able to shift her weight against her stinky brothers. At an early age she was taught to shift her hips in perfect timing and throw her brothers away from her. Little Miss Mary is as tough as nails, but sweet as pie, when needed. God used little Miss Mary's brothers to prepare her for many spiritual battles that she will encounter. Little Miss Mary is predestined for God's greatness. God has transported Little Miss Mary to a city in Jordan.

Little Miss Mary's final mission has taken her to the city of Umn Qais. The city is in the northern part of Jordan and parallels the southern border of Israel. Little Miss Mary and a little orphan girl materialize in the sanctuary of a Church. The Church is full of prodigals, lost sheep, and a few saved souls. The Church is almost silent in the night as souls whisper prayers of repentance and praise to God. The angel and the orphan walk to the alter and pray. The orphan girl has no family and is living on the streets of Umn Qais. Little Miss Mary whispers to the little orphan by saying, "Accept Jesus in your heart and you will be in paradise!" The female scout observes in awe as the orphan asks Jesus for salvation. Tears of joy fill little Miss Mary's eyes and impact her soul while the orphan experiences the joy of Jesus enter the orphan. Little Miss Mary dematerializes from the side of the orphan and gradually floats up in the dark sky. Little miss Mary is about to enter another violent fight, and she clueless to the impending danger. The female scout hovers in the dark sky and her tablet materializes and she whispers, "Stranger Danger?" Suddenly, Little Miss Mary is blindsided by a huge fallen angel. The fallen angel is ten times the size of little Miss Mary. The fallen angel grabs little Miss Mary by the neck and hurtles the tiny scout in the air. Little Miss Mary corrects her tumbling body in midair and fell towards the ground and slid in continuing tumbles. Little Miss Mary is about pass out from the blunt force trauma, while she tumbles end over end and came to rest in a patch of shrubs. A pathway of sand, rocks and vegetation is strewn to where little Miss Mary's crumpled body lay. The stunned scout stood to her feet and shook off the sandy dirt from her uniform and hair. The massive fallen angel lands next to the scout and grabs the scout by hair and whips little Miss Mary high in the sky. Little Miss Mary is spiritually stunned and angry because she hates when her brothers pulled her hair. The fiery little scout came to a screeching stop in midair and shouts in fury, "That's it, nobody messes with my hair!" Little Miss Mary huffs and puffs like a steam engine and her eyes brighten with God's holy anger, and she hurtles towards earth and smash lands on top of the huge fallen angel. The little scout bounced off the back of the fallen angel, like a tiny fly hitting the rear-end of a horse and smashed hard on the ground. Sandy dust swooshed away from the angelic impact zone. The fallen angel laughs hard, and he almost fell over. Little Miss Mary recovers on the ground. The fiery scout shook off the dust and fearlessly advances towards the fallen angel. The fallen angel says in a harsh raspy tone of voice, "Do you know who I am?" as he chuckles more. Little Miss Mary screams and says, "I don't care who you are, in the name of Jesus Christ, I am going to mash you into the ground!" The huge fallen angel shouts a horrendous battle cry, "I am Legion, and we are 6,000 strong." Little Miss Mary knew she is in for a spiritual whopping. Little Miss Mary is reminded of the Bible story when Jesus dealt with Legion. Jesus allowed the legion of fallen angels to enter a herd of pigs. The herd of pigs were spooked and ran over an embankment and into the water and all the pigs were drowned. Little Miss Mary is faced with the same battle that Jesus experienced, and mixed with a couple violent twists of brutal violence. Little Miss Mary is extremely bold and says to Legion, "Jesus Christ whopped you a long time ago. I am going finish the job, Pig!" Legion did not like little Miss Mary's tone of voice and grabs and slams her to the ground. Legion pins little Miss Mary's left arm and shoulder to the ground. The fallen angel's massive forearm presses on the scout uniform of little Miss Mary. Legion reaches for his blackened steely sword and is preparing kill of little Miss Mary. The scout felt her breast plate of righteousness crunch a bit. The spiritual weight of 6,000 fallen angels, press on little Miss Mary's chest. Legion did not see little Miss Mary pull a three-pronged dagger from the sheath and slowly tuck the dagger under her right leg. Little Miss Mary waits for her chance to strike. Legion bent over and looks in the eyes little Miss Mary and says, "Your death will be very slow and painful; and we will enjoy the death of a Saint!" Legion stuck out his tongue and is about to lick little Miss Mary's cheek and pierce her stomach with the sword. Legion taunts the helpless scout and hisses at her. Little Miss Mary's eye's transform Godly white and she slams the three-prong dagger into the side of Legion's chest. Legion is stunned as his chest cavity and heart is pierced with God's blinding glory. Little Miss Mary did not know that Jesus had given her a special dagger and this dagger casts Legion into the abyss. Once the dagger penetrated Legion, it spun once to the left then furiously spun to the right multiple times. God's glory shines inside of Legion's chest and vaporizes 6,000 fallen angels in a millisecond. Legion violently screams a final death cry and vanishes from physical and spiritual sight. Legion enters hell forever. The little scout pushes of the lifeless carcass of Legion and stood to her feet. Little Miss Mary shook the dust from her uniform and feet and straightened her hair. Little Miss Mary says, "Now, I really know I can do all things through Jesus Christ," and she kicked Legion in the side. An icky black substance oozed from Legion's lifeless carcass and trickled unto the sand. Little Miss Mary looked to the night sky and tied her hair into a ponytail and cut off the ponytail with her sword. The scout tossed her ponytail on top of Legion's carcass and says, "My hair will grow back in heaven, but pigs burn in hell!"

The Commander of the Lord's army and Macom look at little Miss Mary from on high. The Commander and Scout enjoy of the victory over Legion. With one spiritual blow from the tiny hand of little Miss Mary darkness flees. God confounds the strong with the weak. Lucifer and the fallen angels will soon experience the unrelenting and retaliatory strike from heaven. God, Jesus, Angels, Scouts, and every Saint cry for vengeance against the blood thirsty Lucifer, and the fallen angels of this wicked world.

Lucifer prepare his armies of the world for the march towards the land of Israel. The final offensive against Israel and God's people is beginning. The anti-Christ is preparing for his entry into the new world order and God's temple and proclaim that he is god over all. Gog and Magog dispatch their armies to the Middle East and prepare for War. Lucifer is becoming weak and his army is on high alert. The Son of God is about to return and the spiritual death blow is almost at hand. Bless the son of God and the state of Israel and the seed of Abraham! Back to Cedar Rapids we travel.

Chapter 21

Luke opens his tablet to page fifty. A gold coin materializes above the tablet and hovers. A voice from the four wind whispers, "Jesus is buying the souls of men and women. Throw the gold coin in the air and the coin will seek out a soul." Luke took hold of the gold coin and looked at the inscription on the coin. The inscription written on the coin is, "In God you trust for Jubilee." Luke flips over the coin and the address to the Church is inscribed on the backside. Luke tosses the coin in the air and says, "Heads or tails?" The coin lands heads up. Luke whispers, "Naturally." Luke chucks the coin into the night sky.

The gold coin rockets through the air and left a gold vapor trail behind. The coin sought after the soul that needs a miracle. The sound of breaking glass startles a couple. Crash, bang, clink, and roll, roll, roll of the golden coin on a floor. A husband and wife see a coin roll towards them, and the coin does a few lazy circles and plops to a rest on the floor. Rod and Nancy look at each other. Rod picked up the gold coin. Nancy leans on Rod's shoulder and observes the coin in his hand. The middle-aged couple have been struggling to make ends-meet since Rod lost his job. The couple is considering divorce. Nancy will receive additional medical assistance if she is divorced from Rod. Nancy is dying from breast cancer and the cancer is ravaging her body. Nancy is getting weaker and weaker. Rod and Nancy do not attend Church. Rod looks at the gold coin and whispers, "In God you trust for Jubilee." The two souls look at each other with questioning eyes. Rod flips over the coin and looks at the address inscribed on the gold coin, "Open tonight." Rod and Nancy need a miracle. Rod loves Nancy. Rod does not want divorce Nancy over medical insurance, but he is considering divorce. Nancy looks at Rod and says, "We have nothing to lose, let's go to Church!" Rod assists Nancy to the car and drove to the Church. The Church is open, and every light is on and every window is open. Nancy whispers, "That is odd, a Church open all night." Rod drove in the parking lot. Rod says to Nancy, "Are you strong enough to walk?" Nancy is feeling weak and says, "I am too weak, carry me!" Rod lovingly kissed Nancy on the cheek and says, "Okay, I love you." Rod picked up Nancy in his arms and walked towards the Church. Rod and Nancy feel a buffeting breeze pass by them. An angel zips by Rod and Nancy and supernaturally opens the Church doors. Pastor Paul is alerted by the brushing breeze of angelic wings and observes a man carrying a woman to the Cross. Rod knelt before the Cross and held Nancy in his arms. Nancy whispers, "Hold me tight and let us pray!" Rod repositions Nancy on his lap and held his dying wife in his arms. Rod and Nancy pray to God for a miracle. Nancy placed her palms together and prays. Angels surround Rod and Nancy. The congregation observe a shadowy silhouette of Rod and Nancy's reflection on the wall. The silhouette of Rodney holding Nancy in his arms stirs every soul in the church. Nancy listens to the sound of rushing waters surround her body. God releases a miracle for Nancy's cancer ravaged body. Rod opens his eyes to see a spiritual fluid flowing in and around Nancy's body. Rod hugs Nancy tight and anticipates God's healing power consume Nancy. Nancy is miraculously healed. Rod and Nancy feel the love of God enter their bodies and spirits. God restores husband and wife to the day when they were married. The mystery of Christ and his Bride is manifest for all to see in the last day. The congregation observes Rod holding Nancy in his arms, while the couple romantically kiss at the foot of the Cross. Never ever put God in a box! Bride in Christ is alive and well.

Luke is watching the touching moment take place for Rod and Nancy. Luke ponders for a moment and says, "All because of a gold coin. God, you don't need me but use me anyway!" Macom appears to Luke and says, "Carry on! Humility is the key and a promise to a warrior. Many strange things happen tonight. The time is short." Macom fades from Luke's sight.

Chapter 22

Luke is energized by seeing so many miracles and he whispers, "What is next?" Luke's tablet materializes and two names appear. Luke whispers, "Todd and Bill." Luke is transported to a convenience store, where a store clerk had been fatally shot. An armed man robbed and shot the clerk. Todd is an off-duty police officer and Bill is an off-duty paramedic. The officer and paramedic desperately attempt to save the mortally wounded clerk. Luke hovers over the convenience store. Luke peers in the front door and observes a pool of blood on the floor. The clerk is unconscious on the floor. Luke floats through the door like a ghost. Todd and Bill desperately try to save the young man. The clerk has a gunshot wound to the chest. The young man has lost too much blood and is experiencing shock and cardiac arrest. Luke says the police officer and paramedic, "Excuse me, the young man is dead. Please stop trying to resuscitate the clerk! The young man will live again. I will transport the clerk to Church. God will restore the clerk to life. Bring your families to the Church! You will see the young man alive and see the salvation of your God. Todd is a Christian and Bill is seriously considering becoming a Christian. Todd has been witnessing to Bill. Luke picked up the lifeless clerk and the glass door of the convenience store mysteriously opened. Bill rushed to hold the door open, but his hands slid off the door handle. Bill's hands are covered in blood. Luke carried the clerk out the convenience store and gently floated up in the air. Luke turned around to see Todd and Bill staring at him. Todd and Bill look amazed at Luke. Bill observes his blood covered hands. Bill thought of Jesus Christ and His nail pierced hands. Luke says again, "Bring your families to church, now! You will see this young man alive in less than 30 minutes." Luke's eyes brightly light up and he dematerialized in thin air and rematerialized at Church. Luke carried the lifeless clerk in the Church and to the front of the sanctuary. Luke bowed his head in humble reverence as he held the dead man in his arms. Luke whispers, "What a tragedy." The Church people view Luke holding the dead man in his arms. Blood drips from Luke's elbows. Tonight, is a different night in the history of mankind because dead people are physically and spiritually coming life. The scouts are under commands from heaven to raise the dead spiritually and physically. God is at work and nothing will stop His final mission to the world. Tonight, is the night.

Luke remained kneeling and wept. Luke's teardrops fell from his eyelids and unto the gunshot wound of the young man. The congregation gathered around Luke and the young man and gawked at the gruesome sight. The people pray for the young man. Luke felt helpless, and his cry is to God for a miracle. Luke says, "God, raise this young man from the dead, in the name of Jesus, amen!" Luke's voice wavers in a helpless state of prayer and humanness. Luke's angelic scout abilities fade in an instant and weakness fills his inner soul. An angelic voice is heard whispering in the sanctuary, "I am the creator of life and death!" Luke and the congregation stop praying and listen to the heavenly voice. The angelic voice says, "I am the creator of life and death!" The heavenly voice repeats the words in the sanctuary. Luke lay the young man on the floor of the sanctuary. Luke stood to his feet and put his hands in the air and shouts, "God is the creator of life and death!" The congregation says in unison, "God is the creator of life and death." A reverent holiness fills the sanctuary, and the congregation is silent. A portal materializes in front of the Cross and two large angels appear. The two angels walk to the young man and the young man's body supernaturally hovers in the air. Allen gasps as he sees the two angels and says, "This is not normal." The two angels touch the chest wound of the young man and say in unison, "Man took your life. God restores your life. Ben Chambers, Awake!" The young man's eyes open in fear as his body jolts. The clerk observes the angels, Luke, and the Church people surrounding him. The clerk inhales a deep breath of air. Death is forced to flee Ben, just as the violent criminal fled from the convenience store. Ben immediately jumps to his feet of hovering and touched his chest. Ben felt no pain in his chest. Ben remembered the intense and painful burning sensation as the bullet entered his chest. Ben's innocent blood immediately vaporized in the presence of God. Pastor Paul whispers, "Innocent blood always cries out to God when shed." Ben touched his bullet scar and powder burned skin for a few moments. Pastor Paul and Luke help Ben to the front pew. Ben is light-headed from all the blood loss. Ben tried to comprehend the violence and death he experienced. Ben fearfully says to Pastor Paul, "I was going to hell, when a bright light grabbed on my leg and pulled me back from the sinking in darkness." Pastor Paul pointed his hand towards the Cross of Christ and said nothing. Ben stood to his feet and ripped off his gunshot shirt and touched his scar and stoically walked to the Cross and knelt and wept. Ben is thankful for second chance at salvation. God left the scar on Ben's chest as reminder of His grace and sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

Just then, Todd and Bill and their families enter the church sanctuary, and they see the clerk alive. Todd and Bill hustle to the front of the sanctuary and look at clerk. The police officer and paramedic drop to their knees in fear and ponder Ben's miracle. Todd and Bill look at the healed chest of Ben. Bill immediately made his choice for Christ and says, "I need to be baptized!" Pastor Paul is excited and says, "We can do that." Todd joyfully says, "I have been praying for Bill." Pastor Paul's ears perk up and he says, "Have you been praying for your friend's salvation?" Pastor Paul had a great idea enter his mind and says to Todd, "Do you want to baptize your friend?" Todd looked at Pastor Paul with a cockeyed look and says, "I'm not a Pastor, I can't do that." Pastor Paul says, "If you prayed for your friend to be saved, then baptize Bill into the Kingdom!" Todd looked at Bill and says, "What do you think?" Bill fist bumps Todd and says, "You the man!" Ben is listening to the conversation between Pastor Paul, Todd, and Bill. Ben says, "I want to be baptized too!" Ben touched his healed gunshot wound and says, "Amazing." Tiny exuberantly says, "Jesus is so awesome, thank you, Lord." Pastor Paul directs his hand towards the baptismal and says, "Todd, Bill, and Ben to lead the way!" Pastor Paul helped Ben to the baptismal. The two men are baptized. The congregation danced and rejoiced for the salvation of Bill and Ben. The angels, groove and dance to the praise and worship of the congregation. Who in the world ever said, "Church is boring?" The final Church services on earth are rocking the entire planet for Jesus Christ.

Chapter 23

Luke exits the church with a big smile on his face. Luke's tablet materializes and he whispers, "Jessie." A portal materializes and Luke stepped into the portal. Luke rematerialized near the bed of a little boy. Jessie is a little boy, and he is dying from Leukemia. Luke observes Dad and Mom kneeling by Jessie's bed. The three souls pray together for a miracle. Jessie opens his eyes and looks at an angel. Luke is standing at the foot of the bed. Jessie calmly says, "Mom and Dad, you are not going to believe this, but there is a man standing by my bed. The man is dressed in a warrior uniform." Jessie's parents turn to see Luke standing at the foot of Jessie's bed. Husband and wife back away from Luke in fear. Luke kindly says, "Don't be afraid, God has heard your prayer. Jessie will be healed!" Suddenly, two angels materialize at the foot of Jessie's bed. Jessie musters up enough strength to stand. Luke says, "Steady Jessie!" Scott and Tammy hold Jessie's shoulders and steady Jessie. The two angels say in unison, "Jessie, do you want to be healed?" Jesse put his hands together in prayer and closed his eyes and says, "Please Jesus, heal me! I don't want to be sick anymore." The two angels touch Jessie's shoulders and a brilliant light shown all around Jessie. Jessie is miraculously healed. Jessie's cancer exits his body and hovers in a cloud of darkness. The two angels say to Luke, "You have the honor, command the cancer to begone, in the name of Jesus!" Luke says to the dark cloud of leukemia, "I command leukemia to begone from Jessie and never return, in the name of Jesus, amen!" The hovering cloud of leukemia is immediately vaporized, and Jessie is restored to wholeness.

Macom materializes at the foot of Jessie's bed. Macom is a radiant warrior from the throne of God. Macom says to Jessie, "God has selected you to be an honorary scout for a day. Step forth and receive your knighthood!" Jessie stepped forward. Macom pulls his sword from the sheath and held the sword in the air and says, "Kneel before me and receive your knighthood!" Little Jessie knelt and bowed his head. Macom tapped the right and left shoulder Jessie with the blade. Jessie's body is covered with an honorary scout uniform. Jessie's uniform is exactly like Macom's uniform. Jessie is overjoyed and ran around his bedroom screaming for joy. Scott and Tammy stood and watched their sweet little boy play. Macom says to Luke, "Take Jessie on a flight around the city and show him the sights!" Jessie looked at his parents and says, "Can I go? Oh please, pretty please, with sugar on top!" Scott and Tammy have so many concerns for Jessie's safety, but for the first time in years Jessie's enthusiastic smile is back. Scott and Tammy say, "Yes!" Macom says to Scott and Tammy, "Go to the church on the west side of town! Jessie and Luke will be waiting on the steps of the Church. You have thirty minutes to drive to the Church." Luke held out his hand and says to Jessie, "Touch my hand!" Jessie touched Luke's hand and the scouts lift off the floor. Luke and Jessie float over to the bedroom window. Luke says to Jessie, "Open the window!" Jessie opened the window with super boy strength. The window shook and dust fell off the window. Luke and Jessie float out the window. Jessie looked at his swing set and bolted to the swing set and he slid down the slide. Jessie bolts to the top slide, again, and zipped down the slide. Jessie hopped on his swing and swung back and forth. Mom and Dad watch Jessie from the vantage of bedroom window as they listen to Jessie's playful laughter. Scott and Tammy hug each other tightly and cry tears of joy. Jessie's hurting pain from cancer is all gone. Luke observes Jessie play on the swing-set. Luke is a bit sad; Luke had always wanted a son to play with. Luke was divorced and never remarried. Luke never experienced parenthood. Luke thought to himself, "I really missed out, why God?" Luke says to Jessie, "Try out your wings and fly!" Little Jessie bolts up in the night sky. Luke quickly trails behind Jesse. Luke says, "You are a fast little guy." Jessie says through a gust of wind, "I'm super-fast tonight, Jesus healed me." Luke whispers under his breath, "So am I," as Luke and Jessie zip across the sky.

Chapter 24

In the meantime, Macom and Ashlon return to battle each other. Macom and Ashlon violently grip each other and attempt to kill one another. The angelic and fallen angelic pummel each other with their bare hands. Crush, squeeze, twist, smash, bite, kick, throw, slam punch, stomp, bash, stab, and thrust is seen as Macom and Ashlon fight each other, but can spirit kill spirit? Exhausted from the spiritual tussle, Macom and Ashlon separate in exhaustion as they instantly lift higher in the air and brandish their swords towards one another. Both spiritual warriors say nothing to each other, while they both circle in preparation for another vicious attack.

Ashlon pointed his sword to the ground and says, "Hear me out!" Macom thought Ashlon's conversation is a trick and is pointing his sword at the head of Ashlon. Macom says, "State your plea, as you are under the sentence of eternal damnation." Ashlon let his guard down and says, "I know my final death will come, but I admit to you, my old friend and enemy, a truth. As a moth is drawn to the light, I find myself longing for the light of heaven and the sweet fellowship with God, Jesus, and my old friend." Ashlon looked in the eyes of Macom. Macom sensed hopelessness in the darkened eyes of Ashlon. Ashlon once enjoyed the presence of God. Macom sadly says, "You made your choice, and you must live with the consequences of the rebellion. I also wish that you had not made the fateful decision." Ashlon reluctantly turns away from Macom and vanished in the darkness. Macom whispers under his breath, "I miss you too, my old friend."

*****

Every soul will experience regret on the final day of earthly existence when we all meet the living God. We will see Jesus Christ at the right hand of the Father. The person who accepted Jesus as personal Savior will ring the bell of salvation and enter eternal life. The soul who denied Jesus on earth will ring the bell of hell. Hell's bells continually ring and call the unsaved to eternal torment. The final human tragedy of rebellion against God is soon coming. Every person believes they have more time than they do, but to their surprise, time is a lie. God knows your beginning and your end and time sneaks upon all of us when we least expect. Do not be that person! Ashlon never thought he would be expelled from heaven and cast down to earth and be judged by God. Thousands of years have passed since the great rebellion in Heaven, but Ashlon still felt glimpses of God's glory, love, and judgment upon him. Ashlon admitted to himself and Macom of his longing for God and Heaven. Ashlon's fallen angelic mind still flickers of God's glory in his heart, but spiritual depravity consumes his mind. Ashlon thought of the many years he praised and worshiped God as he carried out the work of Lord. Deep regret is consuming Ashlon's mind. Ashlon wants salvation or death. Ashlon whispers softly, "Hell is not for me, but I have caused horrible pain to God, humanity, and earth. Death and damnation be the final destiny. Take my life God! I don't want to live like this anymore!" Ashlon bolts toward heaven in the hope that God would strike him dead, but death does not occur to Ashlon the fallen. How much regret do you live with? There is a short time to repent, repent now!

God planned this tiny battle between Macom and Ashlon as a diversionary tactic against Lucifer while Christ moves forward the greatest invasion ever seen by man, angel, and fallen angel. Earth is about to be invaded. In that moment, Jesus Christ the Son of God stepped from the third heaven and millions of angels slowly advance from the third Heaven. The trek across time and space has begun for Jesus Christ. Repent, repent, repent while you still have time!

Chapter 25

Luke is hovering in the air and pondering the next soul he will meet. Luke's tablet materializes and he whispers, "Stevenson." Luke listens to a big bang disturb the silent night. Luke hustles toward the explosion. Luke observes a crash scene on I-380. A minivan and semi-truck smolder in vapor and smoke. Luke hit the pavement running and left two footprints on the interstate cement. Luke hustles towards the mangled minivan. The minivan has blood splattered on the inside of the windshield. Luke rips off the driver's side door. The crumpled door tumbles end over end and settles in the grass. Luke is not ready for the gruesome scene inside the minivan. Luke observes the male driver is profusely bleeding from the neck. The seat belt had gashed the neck of the driver. There is an unconscious female resting in the passenger seat. Luke listens to children crying and whimpering in the back seats. The male driver is dead. Luke turns and observes the semi-truck smoldering. The truck driver slowly exits the cab of the damaged truck. The truck driver hustles towards the van and peaked over the Luke's shoulder. The truck driver observes the dead driver of the minivan. The truck driver freaks and shouts, "Is he dead?" Luke says, "I don't know." The truck driver hysterically says, "I'll never drive a truck again!" as his body shakes. Luke pauses for a few moments, and whispers, "Help me God!" Macom materializes and says, "I'll take the minivan and you take the truck driver to Church!" Macom grabs hold of the damaged minivan and floats up in the air. Luke grabs the hand of the truck driver and floats up in air and follows Macom. Macom transports the van to the Church parking lot and softly put the mangled van on the pavement. Luke and the truck driver land on the parking lot. Luke says to the truck driver, "Walk in the Church and ask for help!" The truck driver hustles in the church and yells, "Help, we need help!" Macom unlatched the seat belt of the driver and carefully pulled the lifeless body from the seat. Macom says to Luke, "Pick up the injured woman and take her in the sanctuary!" Macom and Luke stoically carry the injured man and woman in the Church and enter the sanctuary. Pastor Paul and a few of the Church people quickly hustle to the parking lot and help the shaken and uninjured children from the van. Macom says to Luke, "The man is dead, and his wife is dying, it is your responsibility to raise the dead!" Luke says, "What, raise the dead?" Macom says, "I command you to speak life in the dead and the dying, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen!" The hair on the back of Luke's neck stood up in fear. Luke is not sure that he has the faith to speak life into a dead and dying person. Luke mumbles, "This faith stuff is getting harder." The congregation observes the dead man and dying woman resting on the floor of the sanctuary. The Church people begin to desperately pray in a spirit as the two bodies lay motionless. Pastor Paul hustles to the pulpit and grabs a jar of olive oil and hustles back to the dead man and dying woman. Pastor Paul's hands are trembling in fear as he pours the oil in his palm. Pastor Paul observes the droplets of oil land on the carpet. Pastor Paul's faith falters a bit. Pastor Paul whispers, "Lord, not again." Luke senses Pastor Paul's faith is weak and says, "Pastor Paul, it is your faith that will bring this man and woman back to life!" Luke says to Pastor Paul,

“Make a fist! Remember?” Pastor Paul clinches his fingers tightly and made a fist. Luke grabs Pastor Paul’s fist and held Paul’s fist to Luke’s chest. Luke says, “Hours ago you broke your hand on my chest. In the name of Jesus, you were healed.” Luke squeezes Pastor Paul’s hand says, “Take your broken and healed hand and raise this man and woman from the dead, in the name of Jesus. As you speak, I speak.” Pastor Paul pulls his hand away from Luke and opened and closed his hand a few times, while wiggling his fingers and recalling the intense pain and healing power of God. Pastor Paul is determined with faith and says, “Take the anointing oil and pure it all over my hand!” Luke smiles at Pastor Paul and says, “Now you are talking.” Pastor Paul cupped his hands together and says, “Pour it!” Luke dumps the olive oil into Pastor Paul’s hand. Olive oil overflows with anointing and healing power in Pastor Paul’s hands. Pastor Paul says, “Brothers and Sisters, gather around the man and woman and kneel and lay hands on the dead and dying! I will anoint their bodies and ask God for a miracle. Do this by faith!” A little girl wiggles through the crowded circle and sat between her parents. The little girl says, “I need my Mommy and Daddy, please make them better!” Pastor Paul observes the tears of concern and anguish in the little girl’s eyes. Pastor Paul is heartbroken and felt hurried agony. Pastor Paul murmurs in his spirit as he had seen this tragic human life and death situation play out over many years. Pastor Paul had conducted many funeral services and he hates the finality of death. Pastor Paul passionately whispers, “God, heal this father and mother! I give you my life for theirs. Raise the father and mother and let them be with their children.” Pastor Paul stoically knelt between the dead husband and dying wife. Pastor Paul pours the olive oil on the husband and wife. Pastor Paul says to Luke in a shaky voice, “I need the rest of the oil!” Luke handed Pastor Paul the jar of oil. Pastor Paul pours the olive oil on the wound of the husband and pours the rest of the oil on the midsection of the wife. Pastor Paul put his hand over the gash on the man’s neck. Pastor Paul lifts his left hand in the air and prays for a miracle. Pastor Paul clinches his fist tightly in the air and weeps profusely and continues in prayer. A gentle breeze buffets the prayer circle of believers and sounds of flapping wings stirs the Christians. Suddenly, the husband’s eyes open, and he turns his head and observes his wife. The husband touches the cheek of his wife. The wife’s eyes open and she smiles at her husband and kisses his bloody hand. The little girl says, “Did you see that mommy? There was a real big angel who reached down and touched daddy’s neck and touched your tummy. Wow, those angels are big.” The mommy slowly sat up and reached for her little girl. The little girl jumps on the lap of her mommy. The mommy says, “It takes an angel to see and angel,” and hugs her little girl. Pastor Paul says to the father, “Can you sit up?” Tiny and Chuck interrupt and say in unison we’ll help.” Tiny knelt and tucked his hands underneath the husband and helped the husband sit up. Chuck assisted the wife to her feet. The prayer group look on in amazement at the double miracle. The clothing of the husband is covered in blood, but the gash on his neck is completely healed. The wife does not look severely injured but has multiple bumps and abrasions on her forehead, arms, and shoulders. God had protected this family from destruction. Praise the Holy name of God and Jesu!

In the meantime, Macom had left the Church and transported the minivan back to the scene of the accident. Macom put the van in the exact spot where it came to rest. Macom bolts high in the air as the emergency response teams arrived on the scene. The Iowa state trooper opens his squad car door and hustles towards the minivan. He looked in the minivan, but the van is empty. The trooper observes blood covering the seat, airbag, and windshield. The trooper shook his head in amazement. The trooper says, "Where are they?" He quickly hustles to the semi-truck and the truck is empty. The trooper says, "Where is everyone?" The Trooper says into his shoulder microphone, "I have an empty minivan and semi-truck involved in a head-on collision. No people on scene. Call the Hospital and see if any injuries from an auto accident have been admitted! Head-on, s minivan and semi-truck have severe damage." The trooper listens to the rushing of a car brush by him.

Luke's tablet materializes, and he listens to big bang and says, "You have got to be kidding me." The scene of the first accident was just about cleared, when the patrol officer is struck by a car. The trooper's body hurtles in the air and tumbles down in the ditch. The trooper is semi-unconscious. Luke rematerializes next to the downed trooper. The injured officer has suffered a few severe injuries. Luke observes the trooper's injured leg and crinkled arm. Blood is bleeding through the trooper's left shoulder of his dark blue uniform. Luke looks at the officer's head and observes no apparent head injuries as the officer drifts in and out of consciousness. The officer looks at Luke and says, "My left arm and right leg are in bad shape." Luke says, "Let me help you to your feet!" The officer took hold of Luke's hand and felt the sensation of weightlessness overtake his body. The officer experiences the unusual sensation of weightlessness and he floats up in the air. The amazed officer says, "I am hallucinating, this isn't real. I must be drifting in and out of shock." Luke and the officer float to the front of the sanctuary. Luke says, "I need everyone to lay hands on the trooper and pray!" The Church group surround the trooper and pray. The prayer of faith heals the man of law instantly. The trooper observes the praying congregation pray for him. Andrew's arm and leg miraculously heal with the prayers of Christians.

What Andrew did not know was his grandparents continually prayed for his safety. The grandparents always prayed that Andrew would accept Jesus and be baptized. Andrew is astonished by God's healing power. Andrew stood up for Jesus and ran and jumped into the baptismal like a cannon ball. Andrew made a big splash for Jesus. The baptismal water splashed up in the air and touched the ceiling of the Church. God honored the continual prayers of Andrew's grandparents. Andrew is saved and God saved a man of the law. By grace we are saved that no man should boast.

Chapter 26

Luke is hovering in the heavenly realm where Christ and the angels will soon rip open the sky and enter earth's atmosphere. Luke's tablet materializes and Luke whispers, "Miss Ashley." Luke is shot like a bolt of lightning across moonlight sky. Luke arrives in the Windy city where a well-known Pop Star is performing. Luke lands on stage next to Miss Ashley. The cheering crowd is amazed and overjoyed by Luke's arrival. The adoring crowd thought Luke's entrance is part of Miss Ashley's act as Luke joins in the singing and dancing with Miss Ashley. Luke follows every step, twist, spin, turn, wiggle, and slide in perfect unison with Miss Ashley. The music bumps and thumps to the rhythm of the act. Luke hustles towards Miss Ashley and slid on his knees to her and seductively smiles. Luke put his hand on Miss Ashley's hand and says in a heavenly voice, "May I sing a song with you?" Miss Ashley has a smirk on her face and jokingly says, "You think you can hang with Miss Ashley?" Luke smirks and smiles and says, "You need a microphone, I don't." Miss Ashley is astonishingly irritated and huffs to say, "The stage is all yours, let me see what you got! I will follow your led." Miss Ashley put her hands on her hips and taps her right foot with an impatient manner and a wiggle of her nose. Luke thought for a moment and a song enters his mind. Luke walks to the pianist and says, "Hands to Heaven, you know it?" The band members look at one another and talk amongst themselves. The pianist says, "We'll hang with you, downloading the sheet music now." Luke walks to Miss Ashley, who is impatiently waiting. Luke challenges Miss Ashley by saying, "Miss Ashley, if I sing your highest and lowest note, what will you do for me?" The whole crowd hushes in awe as they observe Miss Ashley thinking. Miss Ashley tilts her head and says, "If you beat me in a singing contest, I will go on a date with you!" Miss Ashley knew that Luke could not win the singing challenge. Luke says, "Okay, let's shake on it!" Luke and Miss Ashley handshake and seal the deal. Miss Ashley smiles and says, "You first," as she motions her hands in graciousness. Miss Ashley handed her the microphone to Luke, but Luke kindly says, "I don't need a microphone." Luke winks at Miss Ashley. Luke teases Miss Ashley a bit and sang slowly and softly in a monotone voice and concludes his pitiful performance. Miss Ashley knew she had already won the contest and sang powerfully and projected her talented voice in the air. Miss Ashley put Luke in is musically challenged place. Just as Miss Ashley hit her highest note, Luke joins in on her soprano note. Miss Ashley is amazed and stops singing. Miss Ashley cannot believe her ears. Luke's angelic voice is out of this world, and no microphone is needed. Luke belts out more heavenly notes. Miss Ashley has more fight left in her and she grips her microphone tightly and belts her way up and down the vocal scale. Miss Ashley smiles and winks at Luke. Luke smiles and winks at Miss Ashley and he follows her down to the lowest vibrato note. Miss Ashley is physically drained from the musical challenge. Luke plummets even lower in song. Luke's voice rattles like a thousand graveling basses. The Musicians and crowd look on in amazement. Miss Ashley knew she had been beat and humbly bows to Luke. Luke walks over to Miss Ashley and says, "Sing with me!" Luke offers Miss Ashley his hand and escorts her to the center stage. Luke knelt on both knees. Miss Ashley put her hand on Luke's right shoulder. Luke nods at the pianist. The musicians begin to softly play the song. Luke put his hands together in prayer. The crowd is silent. Luke concludes his prayer as he raises his hands to heaven. Luke effortlessly begun to sing as Miss Ashley gently blended her voice with Luke's voice. Miss Ashley wonders, "Who in the world is this guy?" Miss Ashley has a lot of questions for Luke. Luke and Miss Ashley finish the love song in a soft and harmonious note of unison. Luke took Miss Ashley's hand and gently kissed her hand and the crowd cheered to the dazzling conclusion of the concert. Miss Ashley and Luke held hands together and took a bow as the crowd cheers, roars, and claps to the amazing act.

Luke walks off stage and towards the backstage area. Miss Ashley follows quickly behind Luke. Miss Ashley says, "Hey, you, stop!" Luke stops in mid stride with his back facing Miss Ashley. It is hard for Luke to face Miss Ashley because Miss Ashley reminds Luke of his x-wife. Luke envisions his x-wife in his mind. Luke stood in silence and he lowers his head in a quiet spirit. Miss Ashley walks around Luke and directly looks at him. Miss Ashley says, "I lost the bet, what about the date?" Luke whispers, "We don't have to go on a date," and shook his head. Miss Ashley sternly says, "Miss Ashley does not take "No" for an answer!" Luke smirks sheepishly and says, "If you go on this date with me, you will never be the same. May I show you something?" Miss Ashley's bodyguard steps forward and says, "You mess with Miss Ashley, and I'll break you in half," and smooshes his fist in his palm while glaring at Luke. Luke cannot resist the bodyguard's comment and says, "I see you are a tough guy and super strong. I have great strength too. I am able to crush your right hand without touching you." The bodyguard laughs at Luke and says, "If I flatten you what do I get?" Luke thought for a moment and pulls his sword from the sheath. Luke and the bodyguard look at the sword. Luke says, "This ancient sword has been my guardian for years, are you worthy own the sword?" Luke slams his sword in the wooden floor. Luke says, "I am a man of honor, shake on it." The two men shake hands and agree to physical challenge. Luke put his hands behind his back and assumed a parade rest stance. Luke awaits the blow. The bodyguard pulls his fist back and swings his fist into Luke's midsection. The bodyguard's fist hit Luke's midsection and the sounds like a golf club hitting a golf ball. The bodyguard knew he had broken his hand and slams his other fist into Luke's stomach. Luke does not flinch. Luke's rock-solid midsection has broken both hands of the bodyguard. The bodyguard knelt in writhing pain, while his knuckles drip blood on the floor. The bodyguard knew he had lost the bet and stood to his feet. Luke says, "Hold out your broken hands!" Luke touches the bloody hands of the bodyguard. Luke says in a heavenly voice, "In the name of Jesus Christ, you are healed!" The pain and swelling instantly left the bodyguard's hands. The bodyguard touches and squeezes his fingers together and he felt no pain. The bodyguard looks towards heaven in humbleness and pauses for a minute. The bodyguard looks at Miss Ashley and says, "You are in good hands." Miss Ashley looks at Luke and says, "Who are you?" Luke says nothing and walks towards Miss Ashley's dressing room and flung open the door. Miss Ashley follows quickly behind Luke and is going to say something when Luke softly grabs her hand. Luke says, "Miss Ashley's life will change forever, but you must follow me!" Miss Ashley looks at Luke with a funny and cockeyed look. Miss Ashley hesitantly says, "Okay?" Luke laughs and says, "Hold tight, your hair may get to be messed!" Luke clutches Miss Ashley's hand and he bolts upward and blasts through the ceiling and roof auditorium. Miss Ashley is screaming crazily. Luke and Miss Ashley swiftly fly towards Cedar Rapids. The flight to the Church ends in a few seconds and the two souls arrive on the steps of the Church. Miss Ashley looks at Luke in a wildest and crazy look and says, "You've got to be kidding me?" Miss Ashley punched Luke on the shoulder. Luke says, "Ouch. The Lord is returning soon! Accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior or deny him! When you were a child, you sang love songs to God. God never forgot your beautiful childlike voice and heart. God created you. Listen to your heart!" Luke says nothing else to Miss Ashley as he pushed her through the sanctuary doors.

Miss Ashley bolts through the sanctuary doors and startles the congregation. Sandy is amazed by Miss Ashley's entrance and says, "Miss Ashley, now way." Miss Ashley observes the Cross and kicks off her dance shoes. Miss Ashley is standing on Holy ground. Miss Ashley is barefoot and walks to the Cross. Miss Ashley is trashed, devastated, and broken as she bows in silence. Fear and love of God enters Miss Ashley's spirit. The pop singer had not lived a life of righteousness. Miss Ashley continues to whimper in humble repentance to Jesus Christ. After a short time of repentance and prayer, Miss Ashley stood to her feet and wiped the salty tears from her eyes. The Spirit of the Lord whispers, "Ashley, sing to me!" Miss Ashley excitedly says to the congregation, "Everyone, stand with me. Help me sing praises to God!" The congregation huddles around Miss Ashley. Miss Ashley observes a little girl holding her mother's hand. Miss Ashley says to the Mother, "What's your name?" The Mother says, "My name is Martha, and this little angel is Celeste." Miss Ashley excitedly says to the Martha and Celeste, "Help me sing a song! What song shall we sing?" The little girl thought for a moment and says, "How about Jesus Love's me." Miss Ashley smiles and says, "Excellent choice." Miss Ashley says to the congregation, "Start snapping your fingers and get a beat!" The congregation began snapping their fingers together in unison. Celeste is shy and began to sing the song. Martha assists Celeste in singing the song. The sweet sound of Celeste and Martha singing the song is heartwarming to the congregation. Church goose bumps fill the air as Martha and Celeste sing, while snapping their fingers to the beat. Miss Ashley cannot resist and softly blends her voice in on the singing. Celeste moves her shoulders to the left and to the right and smiles. The congregation joins in with Celeste and Martha and sing the song. The song is sung multiple times. Miss Ashley's childhood memories enter her mind, and she whispers, "Deep and wide." Miss Ashley moves her index fingers to the left and to the right, while softly singing the song. Miss Ashley moves her hands and arms in motion and signified God's depth and width of love and forgiveness. The congregation is singing the sweet and expressive chorus as angels dance to the groove. God listens to the song with pleasure in his heart. The long-lost Miss Ashley has returned to singing her heart out for the Lord. After the song, Miss Ashley asked Pastor Paul to baptize her. Pastor Paul baptized Miss Ashley into the kingdom of God. Miss Ashley squeaked into God's kingdom by the skin on her teeth.

Chapter 27

Windy is talking to Violet in the back corner of the sanctuary when Violet began to weep. Violet is crying and thinking about Woody killing her. Windy felt Violet's emotional pain increase as she comforts Violet. Windy confides in Violet and says, "My husband cheated on me." The two heart-broken ladies hug and cry together. Violet says, "Did you ever forgive him?" Windy has always struggled with forgiving her x-husband and says, "I forgive him every day, but I still struggle with unforgiveness. I had my whole life planned when Dave and I married. About six months into our marriage, the relationship started falling apart. I was the piano player in a praise and worship team. God was really working in my life. Dave was cheating on me. Dave and my best friend were having an affair. My best friend was also on the praise and worship team." Windy attempts to finish her story but busts out weeping. Windy relived the betrayal of her husband and best friend over again. Windy humbly says, "I gave up on God, but everything changed when Luke walked through my front door. Jesus brought me back to life." Violet knew all too well the feeling of betrayal and hugged Windy. Violet attempted to contain herself and whispers to Windy, "My husband was cheating on me too. I confronted him and we got into a crazy big fight and he killed me." Windy hugs Violet and says, "I'm so sorry." Violet says, "The next thing I knew, I woke up and Luke was holding me." Slowly the sanctuary door open. Windy whispers in horror, "The devil, himself just walked in." Woody walked in the sanctuary with a limp in his stride. Luke's dagger paralyzed Woody's leg. Woody made his way to the cross and blurted out a blood curdling cry of repentance. Woody is repenting from killing his Violet.

Luke walks in the sanctuary and observes Woody at the foot of the Cross. Luke is absolutely disgusted and pulled his sword and advanced towards Woody. Macom materialized in front of Luke and block the path towards Woody. Luke quickly moves around Macom. Macom grabs Luke by the right arm and knocks the sword from his hand and says, "Come with me!" Luke defiantly says, "This murderer has no right to be in here!" Macom says, "You lack the spiritual wisdom. You battled Woody and a fallen angel that infested in Woody." Macom locks his right forearm together with Luke's forearm and squeezes tightly. Luke attempts to squeeze Macom's forearm but cannot overpower Macom. Macom says, "Suck it up! You are no longer a man, but an angel. You must forgive the cowardice Woody who killed his wife. Jesus died for all sinners and that includes Woody and you." Macom moved the frustrated and irritated Luke out the front doors of the Church. Luke must begin to think like an angel. A word came to Luke's furious mind, "Great Restraint." Only God knows if Violet will forgive Woody. I cannot finish this story between Woody and Violet because the innocent blood of a murdered person cries out and demands justice. God and Jesus can forgive all sin and that includes murderer.

Chapter 28

Pastor Paul is looking around the sanctuary and observes many new faces in Church and Paul felt such joy in his spirit. God is at work tonight, but a moment of great sadness and remorse rushed over Pastor Paul's mind. Pastor Paul reflected on his life in ministry and he felt extremely inadequate to preach God's word. Pastor Paul had high aspirations of achieving great things for God, but Paul failed miserably. Pastor Paul wondered why God had chosen Luke over him for this great revival. Pastor Paul looked down at the ground in humbling reflection. Allen observes Pastor Paul is sad and says, "What's wrong?" Pastor Paul says, "When I started in the ministry, I thought I would be an effective man of God and do wonderful works of the Lord. Luke has put me to shame in one night. I am not really comparing or complaining about Luke but reflecting on my failures." Pastor Paul is filled with sudden grief. Allen says, "It is never too late to get God's fire back and do a great thing! Why do you think God gave Luke this mission?" Pastor Paul had no answer to Allen's question and shrugs his shoulders and says, "I don't know, do you know?" Allen boldly says, "You have to give up many comfortable nights of sleep and seek God, while he may be found! Luke experienced loss when he was young and the only thing that could fill the void was God." Allen shook his head in remembrance of Luke's loss. Pastor Paul is having a tough time understanding what Allen is talking about. Allen kindly says, "Great trials and loss bring great blessings from God, but you must have the right attitude. God does not like a person who complains and is lacking in faith. Some Pastors lose their fire for God and Jesus, but you must pass through the fire of purification." Pastor Paul says, "How can I get the fire back?" Allen smiles and slaps Pastor Paul on the back and says, "God used you to pray and heal a dead husband and dying wife, and baptized many people tonight, and renewed the wedding vows of Rocky and Pebbles. I think your ministry successful. Be thankful because other shepherds have not seen this many miracles happen in one night." Allen encourages Pastor Paul to preach a sermon to the congregation.

Chapter 29

Pastor Paul hesitantly meanders to the wooden pulpit and taps his broken and healed hand on the pulpit. Pastor Paul opens and closes his broken and healed hand a couple times. Knock, knock, knock and Pastor Paul says to the congregation, "May I have your attention! I would like to preach God's word!" The congregation heard Pastor Paul's half-hearted attempt to gather the attention of the people. Tiny claps his hands in the sanctuary and says in a booming voice, "Pastor Paul has something to say. Everybody, sit down!" Everyone in the Church sat down in the pews and await Pastor Paul's sermon. Pastor Paul says, "In the end days, I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh." Pastor Paul stopped preaching for a couple moments and observes the congregation and says with amazement, "I look out at the congregation and see many miracles looking at me. These new miracles boggle my mind as I think of God's love, power, and grace. I see many faithful and other less faithful people in the congregation. Is that bad? God does not think so. Some Christians have great faith and other Christians have faith as the size of a mustard seed. We must cultivate our faith. We are all saved by grace that no man should boast." Pastor Paul looks at Allen and says, "Allen is a faithful servant." Allen does not know what to say and looked down to the floor. Allen does not want praise from man. Pastor Paul says, "Let me clarify my statement, Allen is faithful to the Lord, but I have been the opposite. I have been faithless. I doubted God and Jesus really exist. Tonight, I was in my study reading and questioning if God really exists. Luke materialized in front of me. Luke asked me a question, then, commanded me to punch him. I refused to punch Luke. Luke demanded that I hit him. I refused Luke's second request, when my hand made a fist and uncontrollability punched Luke's chest. I broke my hand. I backed in away from Luke in agonizing pain and fear. Luke stepped forward and healed my hand, in the with the powerful name of Jesus. Luke said to me, 'Pastor Paul, suck it up and stop your doubting!' My hand was instantly healed, and Luke disappeared from my sight. God is with this body of believers. You know, someone should write a book about this amazing final act of God's grace." Pastor Paul opens his Bible and is about to speak when the Holy Spirit came to rest on Pastor Paul. Pastor Paul says, "The return of Jesus Christ has been accelerated. It is time to turn or burn! Repent for the kingdom of God is at hand!" The sermon is done, and Pastor Paul silently looked at the congregation and stepped away from the podium. Pastor Paul moves knelt before the Cross of Christ in thankfulness. Windy began to play the piano while congregation walked to the front of the sanctuary and knelt near Pastor Paul. The Church people prayed.

Pastor Paul stood to his feet and encouraged the congregation to hold hands with each other and make a circle. Every person told their story of salvation to the group. Not a dry eye was left in the Church as the congregation praised God for the many miracles done this evening.

Chapter 30

The commander of the Lord's army and the commander of Satan's army appear in front of Macom and Ashlon. The two commanders advance towards each other and point their swords at each other and shout a decree in unison, "I command a battle in the Southern Sea a few miles from coast of Antarctica, proceed immediately!" Both commanders touch the tip of their swords together in agreement and dematerialize. Macom will lead 153 angelic scouts and Ashlon will lead 166 fallen angels. The spiritual battle will take place over the bitter cold and salty sea water of the South Sea. The heavenly and demonic commanders immediately materialize to the pending battle zone. Macom and Ashlon dematerialize and prepare their troops for battle.

Macom materializes in front of Luke. The two scouts hover in the sky over Cedar Rapids. Macom says, "The commander of the Lord's army has instructed 153 angelic scouts partake in a spiritual battle. We will fight 166 fallen angels." Macom shouts in the knight air a warrior cry and commands the scouts to assemble. The rendezvous location is above Naples, Florida. Macom shouts, "Hoorahh!" America is struck by a mild earthquake, that rattles many souls awake. Luke is about leave when Macom says, "Wait, we will take the damaged limo to Naples." Macom and Luke, fly over to the strip club and land in the cornfield where the limo lay. The two scouts pick up the damaged limo. Macom says, "I will take the front section of the limo and you take the rear section!" Macom and Luke transport the limo. The two scouts screech across the sky towards Naples, Florida. The Macom and Luke arrive above Naples, Florida, and hover over Tin City. Macom releases the front section of the limo and the limo crashed on the street and generates a loud bang as the limo crash-lands on 5th Avenue. Luke drops the rear section of the limo next to the front section and another bang shakes the salty night air. Pedestrians and motorists are startled by loud noise on the street and call 911. Macom laughs and says, "That will keep the authorities guessing. Money cannot buy happiness or salvation in Jesus Christ." The police and fire department arrive on the scene and inspect the heavily damaged limo. The heavily damaged limo is resting in the middle of the road as pedestrians and motorists look on in confusing and shock.

The rest of the scouts assemble in front of Macom and Luke. Luke fell in formation with the scouts and wait for Macom's battle instructions. Macom shouts, "Attend-hut!" as the scouts straighten up and stand to attention. Macom lifts his sword in the air for all the scouts to see. Macom shouts, "Present Arm's!" The scouts present their swords and lift the swords high in the air and give allegiance and honor to God and Jesus Christ. The scouts pause and then slash their swords to the ground and to the right and indicate the supremacy of Jesus Christ. Macom says, "You have been chosen for a battle against the forces of evil. Long ago, you asked for the spirit of Caleb. You understood that your life would be exceptionally hard." Macom eyes turn brilliant white, and he shouts, "Another spiritual test is about to begin. Will you stand or fall in battle? The power of God and Jesus Christ rests upon you. It is time to wreck the forces of darkness and deal a deadly blow to evil! You must spiritually kill 166 fallen angels. The battle will take place in the bitter-cold waters of the South Seas. The edge of Antarctica is our destination. God's speed is with you!" The scouts shout, "God's speed is with us!"

Ashlon shouts to the fallen angels, "Assemble at the southern tip of Africa!" The 166 fallen angels materialize near the tip of Africa. The fallen angels have been collecting thousands of condemned souls as trophies for spiritual damnation. The souls of the damned cry out in painful judgement. The noise of fallen angels, fallen men, and Lucifer's laugh is sickening to ears of the righteous and unrighteous. The fallen angels fall in formation and await their battle instructions. Ashlon raises his black sword and says with a snarl, "Hone your fighting skills and kill every angelic scout. Drag their spirits to Hell and torment the scouts forever!" Ashlon lowers his sword down towards Hell in homage of Lucifer. All the fallen angels point their blackened swords to the ground. Ashlon and the fallen angels rise in the air and stand at the edge of Abyss. The fallen angels bolt towards the South Sea. Another spiritual battle between good and evil is about to begin. Heaven, Hell, and one watery grave is awaiting the spiritual losers.

The two divisions arrive on the watery battlefield where darkness prevails. The waves of cold water, continually splash over the surface of water and air. The bitter-cold and salty waves of the South Seas shudder the tip of South America, Africa, and Antarctica. The watery grave of corrosive salt is anxiously awaiting the angelic scouts and fallen angels. Who will old man of the sea feast upon? The angelic scouts and the fallen angels hover above the watery battlefield and prepare to fight. The two divisions warriors oppose one another. Macom and Ashlon lower their feet to the cold waves and feel the waves roll, slap, and tumble over their combat boots. Macom and Ashlon rise from the bitter-cold waves and hover in the sea misted air. The two commanders advanced towards one another. Macom says, "I am a scout from Heaven, I give my complete allegiance and honor to God and Jesus Christ." Ashlon says, "I am a fallen scout and I give my allegiance to Lucifer, now Satan." Macom knew that his young scouts would not be able to stand against the battle-hardened fallen angels. Macom says, "I live or die with these honorable scouts. The battle is to the spiritual death! No prisoners will be taken!" Macom points his sword at Ashlon. Ashlon points his sword at Macom and says, "You will surly die with your scouts! No prisoners will be taken!" To seal the oath of life or death, Macom and Ashlon extend their right leg and cut the inner thigh with the sword. Spiritual droplets of blood sprinkle unto the sea. Macom's blood causes the water to brighten the waves shards of white light. Ashlon's blood causes the waves to darken even more. Both commanders return to their troops and prepare for the battle.

Macom gather the scouts together and says, "I appeared to you, when you were in your darkest hour. God gave you hope, and I prepared you for battle. Each of you experienced tragic losses in your life. The time has come for you to direct your anger, rage, and loss in the proper direction. Lucifer and the fallen angels have caused you great pain and suffering in life. Look in my eyes and observe the holy rage of God. Let God's rage penetrate your souls!" Macom's eyes radiate the brilliant power of God. Luke observes Macom's eyes turn pure white and finally understood God's rightful rage against sin and sinful man. Luke's spirit is transformed to a blueish color, and streaks of electricity flow over his uniform. Luke is supernaturally charged by God's radiant light. God's high-jacked planet has been terrorized by the watchers, Lucifer, that is now, Satan, and the fallen angels. This fallen angelic terrorizing is just about over. Hours from now, Jesus Christ will return to earth, and He is furious. The scouts organize in battle formation and wait for Macom's signal to attack. Macom raises his sword high in the air and every scout raises their swords in unison. Macon lowers his sword straight down and to the right and held the tip of his sword in the salty waters. Macom pulls his war club from the sling and points the war club at Ashlon. Ashlon lifts his blackened sword and extends his sword towards Macom. Both commanders raise their swords and order the attack. The battle between good and evil has begun as light and darkness blur together in a furious war cry and deafening rage. Macom and Ashlon meet in battle with an unrelenting smash and tangle and rage in spirit as swords collide with a full force of savagery.

The angelic scouts hit the front line of the fallen angels and the salty sea battlefield is wavering with ripples of vengeance. A smashing force of holy rage blasts the frontline of the fallen angles. The scout's great loss hammers the fallen angels. The fallen angels correct their stance and take ten steps backward as they suffer the brunt of the spiritual attack. God's Holy and furious rage fill the scouts. The stunned and fallen angels have their hands full as the scouts brutishly attack. Luke is in holy rage mode and furious over his loss of his x-wife. Luke attacks a fallen angel. The fallen angel slips and tumbles into the salty sea. Luke advances towards the fallen angel which has fallen under the waves. Luke grabs the hair of the fallen angel and rips a chunk of hair out from the scalp of the fallen one. The fallen angel is shocked by Luke's savagery. Luke slams the war club through the chest of the fallen angel. The tip of Luke's war club contains a tiny piece of God's Holy light and the fallen angel silently screams in agony as God's Holy judgment is enacted. God used Luke to abort the fallen angel in a silent scream. The violent action of God and Luke is poetic justice against Lucifer's law of this world. The fallen angel became motionless as his spiritual body slowly sank deep in the cold salty sea. The old man of the South Sea feasts upon the wicked spiritual soul of the fallen angel. Luke observes shards of sparkling light flicker and fade from the fallen angel's body. This fallen angel lay motionless before the silent rebellion against God. The fallen commander of darkness observes the death of the first fallen angel and sneers in anger and rage over the loss. Luke observes another scout lay his weapons on the waves and the weapons float. The scout destroys the fallen angel with his bare hands and crushes the chest of the fallen angel. The mortally wounded fallen angel is released from the grip of the raging scout and slides under the waves of the sea. The fallen angel is never seen again. The angry scout horrendously screams at the top of his lungs in a furious rage at, "That's for my little girl, who was killed by a stray bullet from gang member. Die!" Another scout pins a fallen angel to the surface of the sea and grabs his war club and beat the fallen angel senseless. The fallen angel suffers great damage and is paralyzed. The fallen angel is dying and lay motionless in a battered pool of blood, while the waves splash over the unclean spirit. The scout bent over the fallen angel and pulls his three-pronged dagger and shouts, "This is for my wife who was raped and murdered. Die!" as the scout thrusts the dagger in the neck of the fallen angel. The fallen angel stiffens and dies a painful death. The scout yanks his sword, war club, and dagger from the fallen angel and the unclean spirit slowly sinks into the abyss. The 153 scouts, shred to death the 166 fallen angels in battle. Good and evil subside in the watery grave of the South Sea. The scouts look around the watery battlefield and cheer in victory over the fallen angels. This small spiritual skirmish is just a tiny taste of what will take place in a couple hours from now. The only two spiritual warriors who remain fighting is Macom and Ashlon. Macom and Ashlon rise high up in the night sky. The commander of the Lord's Army overseeing the battle points his sword of judgment at the commander of the fallen angels and dematerializes. The commander of the fallen angels dematerializes and reports the battle outcome to Lucifer, who is Satan. Macom and Ashlon rise higher in the upper atmosphere and fight in a rage of blurring savagery. The four horsemen watch in amusement as Macom and Ashlon battle.

The scout's bow on the surface of the sea and watch the battering waves slapped against their knees and combat boots. Each scout weeps bitterly in anguish and is reminded of their tragedies. The silent but raging ocean of solitude echoes in the salty sea air. Every scout continues to weep profusely. Many human life tragedies and sin enter the minds of each scout, such as pride, murder, betrayal, lying, adultery, theft, war, hate, bitterness, and loneliness in spirit. The scouts praise God for His protection in battle and victory over darkness. Brilliant white tears flow from the eyes of every scout and tumble unto the waves and mix with the sea. A brilliant white color and oily sheen floats on the surface of the sea and surrounds the scouts. The sea surface is a continual wave of milky substance. Luke is humble and sad and clears the tears from his eyes and flicks the teardrops to the bitter cold sea. Luke observes his teardrops hit the sea and says, "Finish the mission!" The memory-stricken scouts gain their composure. Each scout lowers their sword tip in the sea and shards of light illuminate the south sea. The scouts know they will soon be beating the swords into plow shares. Each scout bolts up in the blackened sky and flew back to the Churches and eagerly finish the mission.

Chapter 31

Macom and Ashlon continue battling each other and stir up spiritual dust over the entire heaven and earth. The spiritual battle between good and evil rages. Macom and Ashlon collide and Macom fell in the sky and exposed his mid-section for a millisecond. Ashlon is about to kill Macom but hesitated for a split second. Macom knew of Ashlon's hesitation. Macom stops fighting and points his sword at Ashlon and says, "You could have killed me, why didn't you?" Ashlon huffs and puffs to silence and says, "I cannot kill you. We were best friends in heaven." Ashlon turns his sword to himself and presses the steely tip against his chest. Ashlon longs for heaven and plans to kill himself. Ashlon missed God, Jesus, and his best friend Macom. Ashlon says, "There are other fallen angels who feel the same way I do." Ashlon attempts the plunge his sword in his chest. Macom screams, "Stop! I command you in the name of the Jesus Christ, do not commit suicide!" Macom interestingly says, "If you are willing to suffer the sword of truth and of Jesus Christ, there may be a tiny chance for salvation, but only God knows your outcome." Ashlon says in desperation, "There is no hope, and you know it." Suddenly, a portal materializes above Macom and Ashlon and eleven ancient scouts materialize and surround Ashlon. The ancient scouts burn with fire and their swords blaze with white, blue, orange, and yellow flames. The ancient scouts look like they just exited a fiery furnace. The scouts raise their fiery swords high in the air and give allegiance and honor to God and quickly slash their swords down and to the right. The supremacy of Christ fills the entire area. Six ancient scouts bend their right knees to the atmosphere of earth and point their fiery swords at Ashlon's knees. Five ancient scouts remain standing and point their fiery swords at Ashlon's neck and press their swords on the hardened skin of Ashlon. Ashlon is about to die the final death and closed his eyes and waits for the fiery plunge of death. The commander of the Lord's army appears and is holding the all-consuming sword of God's judgement. The commander points the burning sword to Ashlon's dull chest of armor. Ashlon's heart wildly beats in accelerated fear. Ashlon cannot move, because if he does the ancient scouts will slice him to pieces. The commander of the Lord's army says, "Ashlon the fallen, open your eyes and look at me! Speak your last words before you die, fallen one." Ashlon observes the fiery eyes of the commander and says, "I have been listed amongst the fallen. I have committed great and undeniable grief, pain, and death against heaven, humanity, and earth. I deserve no mercy and expect death as the consequence for my rebellion. When I served God in heaven and praised him continually my heart was full of joy. I miss God's presence more than abiding in Lucifer's and now, Satan's dominion. I miss my friends in heaven, I once called brothers. I failed God, Jesus, and the angels. Kill me! I renounce Lucifer and now Satan's clutches of death and destruction forever. I seek the final judgment and eternal death!" The commander of the Lord's army thrusts the fiery sword into Ashlon's chest. The sword penetrates Ashlon's darkened heart. The fiery sword slices down to the right and severed Ashlon's super vena cave artery and caused instant death. A bloody filth spews from Ashlon's spiritual body and he is gutted. The commander of the Lord's army and the ancient scouts lift Ashlon to a portal. The fiery swords suspend Ashlon in place. The ancient scouts exit earth in lightning speed and travel through the first heaven, and bolt through the second heaven, and arrive at the edge of the third heaven. Gabriel appears in front of the commander of the Lord's army and scouts. Gabriel says with a holy consuming voice, "What has done to the fallen angel?" The commander of the Lord's army says, "Ashlon the fallen has requested we take his life. Ashlon missed heaven and no longer wanted to live. Ashlon missed God." Gabriel is surprised by the words of the commander and says, "Go and throw Ashlon the fallen into the River of Life! If lives he lives, if he dies, he dies. God's Judgments are true and Holy. None of God's creation will ever escape judgement!" The commander of the Lord's Army says, "So shall it be!" Ashlon the fallen is transported to God's river of life. The ancient scouts raise Ashlon's lifeless body in the air and hover over the River of Life. Ashlon's lifeless feet float inches above the flowing water of the river. The commander of the Lord's Army says, "Hold the body in position, while I pull the sword!" The commander pulls the sword from Ashlon's chest. The scout's fiery swords hold Ashlon in position. As a last and final poetic dig to Lucifer is made, the commander of the Lord's army took the sword and carved a cross in Ashlon's darkened uniform. The sword sears Ashlon's dead heart. The commander shouts a war cry, and the River of Life ripples and vibrates. The commander says, "Lower Ashlon!" The scouts lower Ashlon into the River of Life and observe Ashlon sink below the surface and disappear. Just seconds later, a few small black bubbles rise on the water surface and pop. A few tiny white bubbles rise from Ashlon and flash, sparkle, and pop with tiny shards of light. The shards of light dance on top of the river and float downstream. The commander of the Lord's army says to the scouts, "Return to earth and finish the mission! The invasion is about to begin." The commander of the Lord's army glances down at the water one more time and observes a large bubble appear on surface of the water. The commander pops the bubble with the tip of his sword. The scouts exit heaven and return to the battle. Only God knows what will happen to Ashlon.

****

Why did I insert this provocative allegory in storyline of Macom and Ashlon? The teachable moment has arrived for “You” the reader. How does a person deal with friends, family, and acquaintances that have turned from the faith in Christ? Imagine in your mind and live in Ashlon’s mind and shoes. What did Ashlon experience before the great rebellion? Ashlon continually felt joy, peace, glory in heaven with God and Jesus. God’s glory and heaven impacted Ashlon’s soul forever and left a lasting impression on his heart and mind. The sounds, language, radiance, utter beauty of God and heaven would make me want to return to heaven. Ashlon was banished from heaven for his rebellion and is forced dwell with a fallen human race. Can you imagine being ruled by Lucifer, who is now Satan? Do you feel the raw power of hopelessness that Ashlon continually ponders his judgmental eternity? Just for a moment, put yourself in Macom’s mind. Macom is battling his old friend and now enemy, Ashlon. Macom felt sadness for Ashlon because of the choices Ashlon had made. The raw consequence of “Choice” causes spiritual life or death. What would you do for an old friend who has made the wrong choices? Your friend may have no hope and may consider suicide. Macom gave Ashlon hope until the bitter and desperate end of life. Macom did what a true friend would do and gave to his old friend and enemy hope. If you have a friend that is now your enemy, I challenge you to do what Macom did for Ashlon. Call it the Macom and Ashlon experiment. Extend your love and compassion in Jesus Christ to your old friend and enemy. Ponder this unusual allegory, does it hurt the brain? Who has sinned against God and you? Who has done you wrong? Do you see the fallen suffering in the consequence of sin? God will not be mocked a person will always reap what they sow! The old friends and enemies will eventually realize their poor choices in life. Reader, please flex your spiritual muscles of love and compassion towards the fallen friend and give that person hope in Jesus. A friendship may be rekindled! Who knows, in correcting a fallen friend, you may very well cover a multitude of your own sins. God commands you to love your fallen friends, just like Luke is about to do.

****

Chapter 32

Luke is flying back to Cedar Rapids when his tablet opens for the last time. Luke whispers the name of his x-wife. Luke knew who the 100th person would be, and he closed his eyes for a split second and whispers a prayer, “Jesus, help me with the last person on my list!” Luke’s x-wife left him for another man and the spiritual scare is still intact. The purplish scar tissue of divorce has healed and covered Luke in shame for a lifetime. The scarlet letter is ever present and marks Luke’s life. No true Christian ever wants to be divorced. Luke had thought he had moved on from the betrayal, but God knew better. Luke had not totally released his x-wife from the adulteress act. The Holy Spirit impressed on Luke’s heart this notion, “You have got to make peace with her! Let her go so that she may have peace also! You must truly forgive once and for all!”

Luke has a spiritual and physical sure-real moment and is transported to a home on the out skirts of Cedar Rapids. Luke softly lands on the damp grass covered with dew from the heaven. The dull light from the moon’s glow glistens the blades of grass. Luke’s x-wife is on her front porch and sitting in a rocking chair and gazing at the moon and stars. The x-wife observes an angel floating down from the sky and towards her. The x-wife senses a calm spirit settle on her soul. Luke’s combat boots touch the wet grass. Luke walks towards his x-wife and she stoically stood to her fleet. The night before, the x-wife had a dream about Luke. Her dream is coming true. She hesitantly walks towards Luke. She felt hesitant about talking with Luke. She had remarried many years ago. She gazes at Luke in surprise and gasps and put her hand over her mouth. The x-wife says, “What has happened to you?” She observes Luke’s green and black uniform fluctuate in and out of time and space. Luke is like seeing a mirage. Luke’s spiritual weaponry intimidatingly emits a soft glowing light and a sheen surrounds Luke. For the first time in a long time, Luke let his guard down and he says, “God has changed me forever. I must get right with you! You must get right with me! I must complete the mission.” Luke’s x-wife is stunned to her core. Luke is powerful and handsome looking, just like the day he was married. The x-wife thought back to the first time she saw Luke and thought to herself, “He’s the man I’m going to marry!” Unfortunately, she had thrown her first love away and chased after another man. Her poor decision cost her many things. The x-wife remorsefully says, “I was a fool when I left.” She looks down at the ground in sadness. Luke says, “I forgive you, in the name of Jesus Christ.” In that very moment of tension, God released the burden of divorce from Luke. Luke had suffered a broken heart for many years. Luke fell to his knees and cried. Luke’s eyes glistened with teardrops that land on the damp lawn. The x-wife realizes that Luke is half man and half angel. After a few heart-breaking moments of silence, Luke stood to his feet. The x-wife moves forward to kiss Luke on the cheek, when he held out his hand and says, “No! If you kissed me and hugged me, I would fall in love with you again. That cannot happen!” She stepped back in sadness and looks at the ground. She had to admit that she did love Luke and felt shame. Luke senses her shame and says, "Hey, friends forever?" She sadly smiles and says, "Friends forever," and x-husband and x-wife kindly shake hands. Luke's body mysteriously lifts off the ground a few feet. Luke says, "Look at me!" She lifts her head and observes Luke floating in the air. Luke's green and black uniform morphs to a brilliant sky blue and white color as he says, "Take your family to Church, immediately! If I ever meant anything to you, please listen to my request!" Luke lifts higher and higher in the darkened sky. She fell to her knees and wept bitterly. God's truth grips her heart as she felt Luke's betrayal permeate her soul. The x-wife's betrayal to Luke had come full circle. The burden of infidelity and betrayal had finally fallen on the rightful owner of the sin as she touched dew covered lawn. Luke cried many years of tears over the wife of his youth. God had shown his powerful grace to Luke and the x-wife. She stood to her feet and walked in her home and woke her husband and children. The family immediately left for Church. Luke says these final words in the spirit to his x-wife, "Pray more me!"

The family arrived at Church and observed every light is on and all the windows open. The family walked in Church and is mystified and amazed to see so many people in the sanctuary. Pastor Paul welcomed the family with a big smile and says, "Come in and join the fun!"

Chapter 33

Luke is all alone and hovering over Cedar Rapids. Luke is desperately trying to clear his mind and thoughts of lost love. Luke hung his head in sad remembrance. Luke is at his weakest moment of his mission when he feels a sharp pain hit his right side. The fallen angel, Julian hurtles Luke across the night sky. Luke tumbles end over end and smash lands in a cornfield. Luke instantly remembers Macom words, “Your weakest moment is when Julian will attack. His brute force will be unmistakable, complete your mission!” Julian materializes in the cornfield and taunts Luke. Luke has had enough of this wicked fallen angel of divorce. Julian has ruled over the city of Cedar Rapids for far too long and it is time for a payback. Luke immediately bolts towards Julian. Luke pulls his sword from the sheath and let the sheath fall away from his uniform. Luke pulls his war club from the shoulder harness and released his shoulder harness, and the harness slips away from his body. Luke pulls the dagger from his chest sheath and put the dagger between his teeth. Luke and Julian collide in the air and bounce off each other. Luke is enraged and drops his sword and spits the dagger from his mouth. Luke held his war club tightly in his hands and his knuckles pop and crack in spiritual strength. Luke’s war club glows with God’s power. Luke wildly bolts towards Julian and hit Julian on the top of the head. Julian is pile-driven in the ground. The fallen angel is stunned and silently rested for a few seconds. Julian lay motionless and covered with dust. Julian has just been “God-smacked” and spiritually deenergized. Julian crawls from the ground. Luke smash lands on top of Julian. The spiritual and physical impact from Luke and Julian sounds like a bomb exploding. The spiritual dust settles. Julian is energized by Lucifer and materializes to his feet. Scout and fallen angel rise and hover above the crater. Luke’s eye’s turn fiery red and blue in color. Julian experiences fear for the first time since his fall from heaven. Holy rage erupts from Luke’s heart and he screams, “Tonight you die, or I die! It does not matter anymore. I have nothing to live for. I have lost it all and you did it.” Julian is fearful. Luke’s psychopath and raging spirit well up. Julian hurriedly attempts to flee. Luke dematerializes and quickly rematerializes, and grabs hold of Julian’s black wing. Luke rips off one of Julian’s wings. Black blood splatters all over the air in a cloud of misty blood droplets. Julian screeches in agonizing pain and attempts to fly away from Luke. Luke and Julian tumble in the air and crash to the ground. Scout and fallen angel are in full attack mode. On the ground, Julian pulls his sword, but Luke grabs the sword and instantly shreds the sword into small metal filings. The harmless blackened metal filings fall to the ground and surround Julian. Julian attempts to recover from the loss of his sword, but Julian is vulnerable to attack. Luke jumps on Julian’s back and pins Julian to the ground. Julian’s back is broken, and he is paralyzed and in spiritual shock. Luke violently flips Julian over. Luke and Julian are face to face. Luke’s rage burns and he shouts, “Remember me?” Luke growls like a dog and looks in Julian’s fearful eyes. Luke shouts, “The tide has finally turned, and you lose! Die!” Julian closes his wicked eyes for the last time as Luke delivers final death blow. Luke’s spiritual weight increases and crushes Julian’s stomach. Luke clinch his right fist tightly as Julian listens to Luke's knuckles crack and pop. Luke put his fist over Julian's chest of armor and says in spiritual anger, "You took my wife and life. I take your life forever, in the name of Jesus Christ, die!" Luke crushes the black armor and wicked beating heart of Julian. Julian instantly screams a death cry as Luke's fist turns brilliant white with God's shining light. God destroys Julian's wicked soul forever. Julian is dead and will never torment Cedar Rapids again. Luke has finally killed the unclean spirit of divorce who tormented him for many years. Luke pulls his glowing fist from Julian's chest. Luke is spiritually and physically exhausted from the violent battle. Luke is dazed and confused from the raw and savage death kill of Julian. Luke whispers with a sigh of relief, "It is finally over, I am able to die in peace. I fully surrender to Jesus Christ." Luke's sword, war club, and dagger materialize before him and for the last time. Luke grabs the sword and lifts the sword high in the air and gives his final act of allegiance and honor to God. Luke slowly lowers the sword to the ground and slides the sword to the right and signifies the supremacy of Jesus Christ. Luke bows his head and bends on his right knee on the ground. Luke is weak and drops his sword to the ground. Luke stands from bended knee. The scout inhales and exhales a deep breath of air. Luke is exhausted from the years of battle. Luke whispers to God, "Thank you, for such an amazing life."

Luke bolts up in the air and erratically flew towards the Church. Luke's broken and battle-scarred heart is dying and he is ready to meet Jesus Christ. Luke meanders in and out of consciousness as he attempts to land on the Church steps. Luke trips and crashes through the front door and tumbles end over end. Luke's lifeless body bursts through the sanctuary doors and rips the doors off the sanctuary. Luke abruptly skids to a final rest in front of the sanctuary. The dust settles in the sanctuary as hundreds of people stare at Luke's lifeless and battered body. Luke's x-wife observes Luke lying on the floor and she weeps in sadness. Luke is dying. She softly weeps on her husband's shoulder. Allen crazily hustles to Luke's side and shouts, "Luke, are you alright?" Allen violently shakes Luke, but Luke is lifeless. Macom materializes before the congregation and calmly walks to Luke and observes the lifeless body. Macom knelt to the floor and lay his hand on Luke's chest. Macom felt the last heartbeat from Luke's broken heart. Macom humbly and stoically stood to his feet and bowed his head. Macom unfurls his angelic wings. Macom hovers over Luke's dead body and in holy reverence honors the fallen scout. Macom pulls his sword from the sheath and lifts the sword high in the air and shows forth allegiance and honor to God and lowers his sword to sanctuary floor. Macom's sword rests next to Luke's dead body. Allen held Luke's hand tight, while he wept. Pastor Paul is angry and indignant and boisterous as he shouts at Luke, "Is that it?" Pastor Paul raises his hands in the air wildly and shouts, "Luke, you have got to be kidding me, after this battle and victory, you're just going give up and die?" Pastor Paul screams at the top of lungs over Luke's lifeless body. Pastor Paul and Allen abruptly step away from Luke's body in awe as Luke's spirit rises and hovers. A silent hush fills the Church, and the congregation cannot believe what they were seeing. Luke is standing in the spirit and hovering over his dead body. Tiny says to Macom, "What will make Luke stay?" Luke's spirit began to slowly walk away from his body. Macom says to Tiny, "The only thing that may make Luke stay is a person that experienced the loss of a spouse. Kindred spirits are strong." Windy heard Macom's words and steps forward. Windy says to Luke, "Wait, wait, wait, Oh, no you don't!" Luke continues to walk away from his body when Windy hurriedly hustles to his side and kneels by Luke's lifeless body. Windy began to weep from her heartbreaking divorce. Windy lost her husband to adultery. What happened next can only be explained as the mystery between Christ, His Bride, and the Church. Windy touches her broken, damaged, and scarred heart and rubs her chest in painful loss. Windy's hand warms from the fabric friction and the horrible loss of heartbreak and fills her palm and fingers with pain and love. Windy's palm and fingers tingle. Windy put her hand of hurt on Luke's chest. In a millisecond, Luke's spirit doubles over in pain and he fell to his knees and grabs his chest. Luke experiences Windy's anguish, great loss, and loneliness. Teardrops trickle down Windy's cheeks and unto her fingers and roll off and unto Luke's armor. Windy softly says, "Luke, don't leave me here alone! I love you," and put her lips on Luke's chest. Luke defiantly continues to walk away, when Windy pulls her final card of hope. Windy bent over Luke and closed her eyes and kissed Luke on the lips. Immediately, Luke's spiritual body doubles over, and he fell to his knees. Luke felt Windy's damaged heart attempt to give him life. Luke turns and looks at Windy kissing his lips. All Luke can think about is going to heaven and all the awesome things God and Christ have in store for the Saints. Luke felt a powerful sense of compassion for Windy and understood her hurtful loss. Macom grabs Luke's spirit and says, "This is for your own good!" Macom forcefully tosses Luke back into his dead body. Luke's spirit re-enters his lifeless body and he experiences Windy's lips touching his lips. Windy's loving kiss overcame Luke's hurt and brought Luke to back life. Luke feels more of Windy's soft warm kisses. Windy lovingly touches Luke's lips more as tears well up in his battle-scarred eyes. Luke lifts his right hand and put his hand on Windy's cheek. Windy's touch feels like heaven. Luke lovingly embraces Windy. Windy whispers a prayer under her breath, "Thank you God." Luke's body sat upright and held Windy in his arms. Luke returns Windy's kisses. A most amazing transformation occurs when Luke and Windy's body glow a soft brilliant white color. Luke and Windy look a lot alike. Windy kissed Luke and became a scout. No human had ever kissed a dead scout. Windy is in physical and spiritual shock from the angelic transformation. Windy touches her waist, legs, and felt both of her arms as she experiences a spiritual and physical transformation. Windy rubs her rock-hard body in amazement as her fingertips feel the unusual heavenly fabric. Windy smacks her chest plate of armor and the amor generates a pinging sound. Windy's body is rock solid. Windy's uniform morphs from a hazy white color to white, blue, green, and black fabric. Windy's scout uniform feels rubbery to the touch and a little bit slippery to the feel as she continues to touch the heavenly uniform. After a few minutes of bright glowing, Windy's uniform morphs again and the white and blue fade. Windy's uniform is exactly like Luke's uniform. Macom slaps Windy on the back and says, "Welcome to the scouts." The church congregation cheer for Luke and Windy. Miss Ashley says to Luke and Windy, "That's a love story." Allen whispers under his breath, "Luke finally figured it out, if you don't have love, you are nothing." Windy winks at Luke in total approval to the union. Macom presents Windy with a sword, war club, and a three-pronged dagger. Macom says, "You will need these weapons for the battle to come!" Macom smiles and says to Luke, "You have a few hours, train her well!" Luke grabs Windy by the waist and says, "Here's to the new power couple," and kisses her on the lips. Windy whispers in Luke's ear, "I'll see you in Heaven, real soon." When Windy kissed Luke for the first time, her thoughts and Luke's thoughts melded together. During the kiss, Windy's mind observed the preparation in heaven and the return of Jesus Christ. Windy whispers to Luke, "The return of Jesus is just hours away!" Luke whispers to Windy, "Jesus is returning, and the entire world will be shocked. It's going to get real and real, quick!" Windy sweetly says to Macom, "My weapon is not of war, but to praise God and Jesus." Windy walks to Tiny and looks him straight in the eye and winks at him and held out the war club. Tiny took hold of the war club and his body felt the sheer weight of the war club strain his strength. Tiny struggles to hold war club upright. Windy walks to Chuck and winks at Chuck and put the sword in his hand. Chuck grips the handle of the sword. The sword felt like it could fight by itself as Chuck swings the sword a couple swings and thrusts. Windy sweetly kisses Allen on the cheek and put the dagger in the palm of his hand. The dagger energizes Allen elderly body. Windy says Tiny, Chuck, and Allen, "Guard the sanctuary! It is time to solid rock this Church for Jesus!" Windy dematerializes and re-martializes on the piano bench. Windy looks towards heaven and praises God. The congregation intently listen to Macom, Luke, and Windy sing a song in the heavenly language. The congregation is mesmerized by hearing the heavenly hymn. Luke thought in his mind and muses, "I finally got my songstress." After the heavenly song, Macom and Luke vanish from the Church and prepare for the return of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 34

Hundreds of millions of angels dressed in battle gear fall into formation and simultaneously lift their heavenly swords high in the air. The allegiance and honor to God and Jesus Christ is held fast as the angels slash their swords down and to the right. The angels are ready for the victorious return of Jesus Christ. Jesus mounts his white stallion and points his fiery sword of justice at the commander of the Lord's army. Jesus Christ says nothing to the commander. The commander of the Lord's army floats high into the third heaven and spreads his white wings. The commander's wings morph to a shining metallic chrome and his fiery sword glows bright in burning judgement. The Commander shouts, "Forward, march!" The final and dreadful day of the Lord begins and the flight to earth moves forward. The invasion of earth begun as hundreds of millions of angels lift in time and space and spread their wings. The angels morph to a shiny metallic chrome and advance towards earth in lightning speed.

Macon shouts a heavenly command and every scout on earth listens to the command. The scouts immediately fly to Hawaii. The "Silent Night Revival" has come to an end. The scouts hover above the waters of Pearl Harbor. Two Hundred Thousand scouts touch their combat boots to the waters of Pearl Harbor. The scouts honor the fallen sailors and soldiers lost on December 7, 1941. The scout's green and black uniforms turn a white and brilliant blue. The scouts lift their swords high in air and give allegiance and honor to Jesus Christ, while hovering over the USS Arizona Memorial. Macom shouts in a voice of rushing waters, "This is your final mission. Separate in pairs, two by two! Seek out every warship on the waters of earth and below the surface and wait for my command!" The scouts pair up and depart Pearl Harbor. The paired scouts locate every aircraft carrier, battleship, destroyer, guided missile cruiser, frigate, and submarine in and on the oceans. The scouts wait for Macon's command. The silent dawn of the Son of God began to rise.

Just then, Jesus Christ tore open time and space, and He enters the atmosphere of earth. In a twinkling of an eye, millions upon millions of angels flood the sky surrounding Jerusalem. The landing strip of Jesus Christ is prepared on the Mount of Olives. Jesus Christ descends to the Mount of Olives. The return of Jesus Christ looks like an alien invasion. Macom shouts his final attack order to the scouts and says, "Attack, attack, attack!" The scout swoop in on every warship and puncture, rip, tare, and shred warships to pieces. The old man of the sea feasts on the final souls of men. Death will be no more and the old man in the sea is forced to give up the dead from the oceans. The souls from the seas begin to rise from the depths of the oceans and await judgment.

The scouts lift in the air and join in the battle, as Jesus Christ touched down on the Mount of Olives. The commander of the Lord's army shouts, "Proceed to the Valley of Megiddo and destroy the armies of this world! Spare no man or spirit. The days of grace have come to an end and God's judgement has begun." The armies of this world fought a pitiful fight as the angels and scouts and shred men of war and machines of war. Jesus Christ dismounts his white horse, and the final death blow to this fallen world came to an end. The spilled blood from the wrecked armies of this world is ankle deep. More blood flows from Megiddo and is knee deep, then waist deep, then neck deep. The blood of wicked man is flowing at about six feet deep, when Jesus Christ dips the edge of his pure white robe in the blood of the wicked. God's wrath is almost over as Jesus Christ personally cast judgment on Satan and the fallen angels and the fallen people of this world.

FINAL THOUGHTS

The story is complete and there is one thing left to do for the believer in Christ. Your spiritual awakening must flourish. Are you ready for the knighthood of allegiance and honor to God? Do you acknowledge the supremacy of Jesus Christ? There is no retirement for a Christian on earth. Every retired minister, hot or cold Christian, prodigal Christian, and new believer in Christ must awake and ignite the "Silent Night Revival" before the return of Jesus Christ. Open the doors, windows, and turn on the lights of every Church. It is time for the body of Christ to remain open 24/7! If you agree with Jesus Christ, then consider the oath below.

swear this oath to God and Jesus Christ and write your name in the blank! I, _____
_____ will uphold my faith in Jesus Christ. I prepare for the battles God has set before me, and will fight for the souls of men, women, and children. I will never take a human life but restore life to the dead and dying souls for Jesus Christ. With my sword, war club, and dagger, I will fight with a fierce tenacity against the forces of darkness, while spreading the light of Jesus Christ. I will not sleep or slumber or waver in my faith. I pray that the spirit of Caleb dwells within my spirit, heart, and body. Let the final Revival of God begin this day! My oath is finished, and my mission has started, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, amen.

A Registry of Ministers, Servants, and fallen Christians that return to the Lord.

Some servants of God have made poor choices in life and stepped away from the Lord. These fallen people should make a stand for Christ and be ushered back in the fold body of Christ. The fallen servants have suffered greatly because of God's and Man's judgment against sin. The fallen servants have one more opportunity to experience God's grace, restoration, and hope to restart their service to God in the last days. I have a heart for the fallen ministers, clergy members, singers, theologians, and authors that fell away from God's will. This para-phrased scripture is my thought, "As we are unfaithful, yet God remains faithful." I ignite a burning question to the reader. You and I must admit that we are unfaithful and yet God remains faithful. The only difference between the righteous and the fallen Christian is that we did not get caught in our thoughts, but God is watching and will expose the hearts of men and women. Let us not deceive ourselves into believing we are perfect saints without sinful flaws. God and Jesus know the hearts of every man and woman. Toss away your religious façade and ban together as Brothers and Sisters in Christ who have made mistakes and begin the greatest revival in the last days! God and Jesus demand this final revival take place! My gut feeling is that the fallen brothers and sisters in Christ truly desire a second chance to serve again. Do you remember Peter? Peter messed up and denied Jesus three times. Jesus reinstated Peter with a miraculous catch of 153 fish. Christians must wage the final attack against Satan and the fallen angels before Jesus Christ of Nazareth returns to the Mount of Olives. The body of Christ must remain open 24/7 and give the world a last dying chance at salvation in Jesus Christ.

God and Jesus need Christians to encourage the fallen servants and mentor the wayward servants and believers back in the body of Christ, but only if the fallen servant desires to be reconciled. King David was rightfully accused of adultery and murder, but God restored David after strong judgment. God chose to forgive a wicked and fallen King David, who was enthralled in clutches of adultery and murder. Forgive the fallen servant and sin and concentrate on the God's divine forgiveness. It is time to humble yourself, repent, get right with God, and get back to work!

This book cost you nothing but your time. Take the $5.00 or $10.00 you would have paid for this book and donate the cash to a needy person or better yet, a random act of kindness to a person you do even know. Start the fire of revival with a generous spirit of giving and forgiving!